BUFFALO BILLS WALL OF FAME

The Buffalo Bills' Wall of Fame was inaugurated in 1980 to honor former players and administrators who have played significant roles in Bills history. Four former players have been inducted into the Wall of Fame. Running back O.J. Simpson (1969-77) was honored in 1980, quarterback Jack Kemp (1962-69) was inducted in 1984, defensive tackle Tom Sestak (1962-68) was selected in 1987 and guard Billy Shaw (1961-69) was inducted in 1988.

In 1985, former vice-president Patrick J. McGroder (1962-85) became the first non-player to have his name inscribed on the Wall. Bills' president and owner Ralph C. Wilson (1960-89) was selected for induction in 1989 as part of the club's celebration of thirty consecutive years in professional football.

To be eligible for induction into the Wall of Fame, a player must have played for the Buffalo Bills at least three years and be retired from professional football. Administrators who have contributed their services to the Bills organization for an extensive period of time are also eligible.

The Wall of Fame is on the upper deck facade of Rich Stadium on both sides of the field. Paintings of each inductee are displayed in the lobby of the club's administration building.

Thumbnail sketches of each Wall of Fame inductee are listed below:

RALPH C. WILSON, JR.PRESIDENT*33rd Year with Bills*Born October 17, 1918

Ralph Wilson became involved in professional football ownership over 33 years ago. As the only owner of the Buffalo Bills, he has seen his club grow from its early days as a member of the fledgling American Football League, which he is one of only three original owners, to its present association with the National Football League.

During his tenure as owner of the Bills, he has observed two of his clubs win American Football League championships (1964-65) and seen his most recent teams win the American Football Conference titles in 1990 and 1991 on their way to Super Bowl XXV and Super Bowl XXVI.

Two other squads have just narrowly missed winning a chance to participate in two Super Bowls (1966 and 1988) when Buffalo fell in the AFL (AFC) title game.

Wilson has watched one of his players, O.J. Simpson, become the dominant player of the 1970's and move into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Another of his former players, quarterback Jack Kemp, won a landslide election to the U.S. House of Representatives and later became a presidential cabinet member in 1989 (Secretary of Housing and Urban Development).

For Ralph Wilson, football has been important since he was a young man and accompanied his father to University of Detroit and Detroit Lion games. "I was an avid fan in the early part of my teens," Wilson recalls. "I could see the interest developing in professional football in the days of Leon Hart, Bobby Layne and Doak Walker. We could see how popular the sport was becoming."

His enthusiasm for professional football led him to purchase a minority share in the NFL Detroit Lions and later join ranks with Lamar Hunt and other members of "The Foolish Club" in an ambitious, but risky venture known as the American Football League.

In the beginning there was considerable skepticism regarding the AFL by the established members of the NFL and the news media, but "The Foolish Club" (the name given to the original eight owners of AFL franchises) persevered and finally negotiated a merger with the older National Football League.

Recalling his early days in the AFL, Wilson says he "never thought about throwing in the towel, never considered selling the team. Of course, in the first three years we lost money. There were times when I reminded myself that I used to pay five dollars for a ticket to the Lions' games and I enjoyed myself and had no headaches. I would ask myself what I was doing here."

It was Wilson and the late Carroll Rosenbloom, then owner of the Baltimore Colts, who had the first tentative talks in January, 1965, that eventually led to the AFL-NFL merger. A former president of the AFL, Wilson served as a member of the Expansion Committee and the AFL-NFL Negotiations Committee.

He was also prominent in the negotiations which resulted in a 1977 agreement between the NFL Management Council and the NFL Players Association. In the past he has also served on the NFL Pension Committee and its Labor Committee. The Bills' owner is currently a member of several important league committees, including NFL Charities and the Super Bowl site selection committee.

As an active supporter of community affairs, Wilson is responsible for the Bills' strong relationship with the United Way, Roswell Park Cancer Institute and Children's Hospital. He is the founder of the Buffalo Bills Foundation (1987) and helped organize the Bills' Alumni Association and the Monday Quarterback Club.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Born in Columbus, Ohio, Ralph Wilson moved to Detroit with his family when he was a youngster. He earned his undergraduate degree from the University of Virginia and later attended the University of Michigan Law School.

He enlisted in the Navy during World War II, earned his commission within a year and served aboard minesweepers in both the Atlantic and Pacific theatres.

Among his many business pursuits, Wilson is Chairman of Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. Enterprises, (headquarters in Detroit), which is a diversified management and investment company with interests in the construction, television broadcast, and venture capital industry.

Mr. Wilson lives in Grosse Pointe Shores, MI. One daughter, Linda Bogdan, is the franchise's Corporate Vice President while another daughter, Christy, is an assistant to Bills' GM Bill Polian.

HOBBIES/INTERESTS: An avid tennis player and fan...enjoys numerous outdoor activities.

BILL POLIANGENERAL MANAGER AND VICE PRESIDENT ADMINISTRATION

14th NFL Year, 9th with Bills

Born December 8, 1942

BILLS: It has been said that the success of any organization starts at the top and the Buffalo Bills, under the direction of their leader, Bill Polian, are certainly a true-to-form example of this philosophy. Polian re-designed the franchise from an also-ran in 1985 to the forefront in Super Bowl XXV and Super Bowl XXVI. Working alongside President Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. and Head Coach Marv Levy, Polian's eye for talent and negotiating prowess have brought a bevy of outstanding players to Buffalo of which 13 have made the Pro Bowl. In fact, of the 47 Bills at the past two Super Bowls, 45 came to the red, white and blue during Polian's tenure.

Polian has been recognized in the past couple of years for his innate ability to bring some of the finest football personnel in the NFL to Buffalo and then cultivate that talent into one of the league's winningest programs. Among his many accolades over the past six years, none are a truer reflection of his achievements than the ones bestowed upon him by his peers, the 1989 and 1992 NFL Executive of Year (The Sporting News) awards. He was also selected as Buffalo/Niagara Sales and Marketing Executives Man-of-the-Year in 1989 and received the Buffalo Dunlop Awards Dinner Distinguished Service Award.

In 1987, the Bills made headlines in what some people believe to be the trade of the decade. Polian helped orchestrate the deal with the Colts and Rams for linebacker Cornelius Bennett in October 1987 and the trade climaxed one year of dealing by the club. When Buffalo dropped down from third to eighth in the opening round of the NFL draft, they still got linebacker Shane Conlan and a high pick in a later round. They packaged that pick with another later selection to choose cornerback Nate Odomes with the first pick of the second round. Defensive end Leon Seals was also taken in the fourth round.

One of his biggest accomplishments in 1986 was the signing of quarterback Jim Kelly in August. The impact was felt immediately as ticket sales jumped and interest soared. The Bills sold out their home opener with the Jets and drew a record 79,951 fans. Overall, there were three sellouts in 1986 and attendance leaped from an average of 37,893 to 66,476. In fact, the Bills, who have the second smallest market in the league, have led the NFL in attendance the past four seasons with 622,793 (the previous NFL record) in 1988, 619,714 in 1989, 621,549 in 1990 and 635,889 in 1991, establishing a new NFL record.

Polian is entering his seventh season at the helm of the club after being appointed General Manager on December 30, 1985. Besides making a number of organizational changes, he has increased the Bills' overall marketing and promotional efforts in an attempt to make the Bills' front office, in his own words, "the best in the National Football League in everything we do."

Some of the moves instituted during his five seasons included a promotional tie-in with Marine Midland Bank which vastly increased ticket outlets in Western New York and gave the club greater visibility. Much of these efforts were accomplished through his development of a marketing campaign built around the "Bills Make Me Wanna Shout" theme. He also made an effort to upgrade the club's offseason workout program, which has resulted in a greater number of players spending all or a portion of their offseason in the area. Polian helped establish the Buffalo Bills Foundation, which aids Western New York charities and has made a great effort to provide a full entertainment package for fans attending home games with improved pregame, halftime and postgame shows.

He has also been very involved in the community, making hundreds of speaking appearances in the past six years and serving as a member of the Advisory Board of the Association for Research of Childhood Cancer and D'Youville College Board of Trustees. He is also a highly sought-after dinner speaker.

Polian served as the Bills' Director of Pro Personnel during the 1984-85 seasons. In that capacity, he was involved in the game scouting of future opponents, conducting contract negotiations with draft choices and free agents, coordinating tryouts for free agent prospects and handling a variety of other player personnel responsibilities.

During that time, he signed top pick defensive end Bruce Smith, the number one choice in the 1985 NFL Draft. He also went into the free agent market and signed former USFL players center Kent Hull, kicker Scott Norwood and linebacker Ray Bentley along with NFL free agent free safety Mark Kelso.

Polian has been appointed to several prominent NFL committees in the past three years. He serves on the prestigious Competition Committee and the Working Group of the NFL Management Council.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE: Before joining the Bills in August, 1984, Polian served one year as Pro Personnel Director of the Chicago Blitz in the USFL, where he worked with Marv Levy. The two worked closely together in 1976 while Levy was head coach in Montreal and Polian was a U.S. scout for the Alouettes. He later assisted Levy as a pro scout in Kansas City from 1978-82.

In addition, Polian worked as Player Personnel Director for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers (CFL) in 1983, where he helped to build their team which won two Grey Cups.

COACHING EXPERIENCE: Following college graduation, Polian accepted a coaching position at Manhattan College and spent two years there. During the next eight seasons, he worked in the college ranks at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy and Columbia as an assistant. He also served as head baseball coach at the Merchant Marine Academy for a period in that stretch.

HOBBIES/INTERESTS: Enjoys jogging and golf...served as basketball official for many years, still volunteers to officiate local youth games.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: William Patrick Polian is a graduate of Mt. St. Michael Academy in the Bronx and NYU...was captain of the NYU football team and a starting safety in 1965...graduated from NYU in 1966...born and raised in New York, later lived in Cornwall, NY...now lives in Hamburg, NY with his wife, Eileen and their children Lynn (3/19/68), Chris (10/7/71), Brian (12/22/74) and Dennis (11/10/76).

MARV LEVYVICE PRESIDENT FOR FOOTBALL
OPERATIONS AND HEAD COACH

16th NFL Year, 7th with Bills
Born August 3, 1928

BILLS: Marv Levy became only the eighth head coach in NFL history to lead his team to back-to-back trips to the Super Bowl when he directed Buffalo to its second consecutive visit following the 1991 season. The Bills first reached the pinnacle of the National Football League in 1990 with their representation of the American Football Conference in the Silver Anniversary Super Bowl XXV. The Bills mentor guided his squad to its fourth consecutive AFC East crown last year en route to claiming the franchise's second consecutive AFC Championship with a hard-fought 10-7 victory over the Denver Broncos. In the midst of giving the team and its fans two of the most memorable seasons ever, Levy boosted his Buffalo coaching mark to 61-34-0, the best winning percentage (.642) of any coach in Bills history.

Equally as impressive, Levy's teams have posted a 29-3 regular season home record the past four seasons, ranking as the best in the NFL.

Prior to the past two Super Bowl trips, Buffalo's playoff progression started with postseason action in 1988 and continued in 1989. After winning their first four games in 1988, the Bills drove on to a 12-4 regular season record. Levy brought the excitement back to Buffalo football and the fans showed their appreciation in '88 by setting a new NFL in-stadium season attendance record of 622,793, which they then broke again in 1991 with a new standard of 635,889. Another record was set when the Bills clinched the AFC East title earlier in the season than any team in history, defeating the New York Jets in overtime, 9-6, in Week 12. With Buffalo gaining ever-increasing national attention, Levy kept his team poised in the first playoff game ever played at Rich Stadium and defeated the Houston Oilers, 17-10. Even though the Bills' magnificent season was stopped just short of the Super Bowl the following week at Cincinnati, Levy had established Buffalo as one of the premier clubs in the NFL. These accomplishments earned Levy and his staff the right to coach the AFC squad (which included seven players from the Bills) in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl in Honolulu in January of '89.

Beginning his first full season with the team in 1987, the highly-organized Levy led the Bills to a 7-8 record and a position in the battle for the AFC East title up until the next-to-last week of the season. Despite missing the playoffs, Buffalo earned renewed respect in the National Football League and served notice that the Bills were back in the playoff picture.

Levy guided the Bills to a pair of wins over the Miami Dolphins for the first time since 1966 and also directed the club to a 21-14 victory over the Denver Broncos, who later went on to earn a berth in Super Bowl XXII.

Marv Levy enters his sixth full season as head coach of the Buffalo Bills and his seventh with the club. He took over with seven games remaining in 1986 and is serving as the 10th head coach in the 33-year history of the Bills.

Although Levy's 1986 club finished with a 2-5 record over the final seven games, the seeds of success were planted and the team improved in many areas, including the defense against the run, special teams play, and the all-important confidence factor. The Bills were competitive in all seven games with the greatest margin of defeat being only 10 points.

PROFESSIONAL HEAD COACHING EXPERIENCE: When he was chosen to direct Buffalo's football fortunes on 11/3/86, Levy was serving as the Director of Football Operations for the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League. He brought a total of more than 30 years in the coaching profession to the Buffalo post.

When he joined the Bills in 1986, Levy was quite familiar with the club, having served as part of the Bills' preseason television crew for several years.

He served as the color commentator (1983-86) and also did some work with NBC, ESPN and the University of California's football radio team (1985-86).

Levy coached for one season (1984) in the United States Football League with the Chicago Blitz, taking over a team that had changed considerably from its previous season. The team's ownership had changed, and all but four players from the previous season remained when he took over. Despite all these problems, the Blitz was a competitive club and posted a 5-13 record before the team's demise due to financial problems in 1985.

Before his venture into the USFL, Levy was an NFL head coach with the Kansas City Chiefs (1977-82). When he joined the Chiefs, the former Super Bowl champions were coming off a disastrous 2-12 season. But with Levy at the helm, improvement started immediately. In his first season, the Chiefs improved to 4-12 and continued to get better each year. His 1979 club was 7-9 and the following season, Levy's squad was 8-8. Only a late San Diego field goal in the final 13 seconds of a game in 1981 kept the Chiefs from winning the AFC West title and advancing to the playoffs. Levy departed Kansas City after the strike-shortened 1982 season to start working in broadcasting and did so for nearly two years.

The Canadian Football League also benefited from Levy's expertise when he became head coach of the Montreal Alouettes (1973-1977). In his five seasons in the CFL, Levy led the Alouettes to a 50-34-4 record and his teams were playoff contenders in all five seasons. In his second year, Montreal captured the CFL Grey Cup title with a 20-7 win over Edmonton in Vancouver. Three years later, the Alouettes repeated the trick, turning back Edmonton once again, 41-6, at Montreal's Olympic Stadium.

PROFESSIONAL ASSISTANT COACHING EXPERIENCE: Levy began his pro coaching career as kicking teams coach of the Philadelphia Eagles under Jerry Williams in 1969. He joined Coach George Allen's staff as special teams coach for the Los Angeles Rams in 1970 and followed him to the Washington Redskins as his special teams coach (1971-72) and was instrumental in Washington's advance to Super Bowl VII, where they fell to Miami, 14-7.

COLLEGE COACHING EXPERIENCE: Success was synonymous with Levy when he served as head coach at The College of William and Mary (1964-68). He was twice named the Southern Conference Coach-of-the-Year while coaching the Tribe (1964-65) and led William and Mary to what the NCAA later called one of the 10 greatest upsets in college history, a 27-16 victory over Navy (1967).

Earlier, Levy was head coach at the University of California (1960-63) where his quarterback was former Dallas Cowboy star Craig Morton. Before his tenure there, Levy was head coach at the University of New Mexico (1958-59) where he earned the Skyline Conference Coach-of-the-Year honors in both of his years at the school. He joined the New Mexico staff as an aide to Dick Clausen (1956).

Levy got his start in the coaching profession on the prep level as head coach at St. Louis Country Day School (1951-52). In just two seasons, he compiled a 13-0-1 record. He entered college coaching in 1953 as an assistant at Coe College (Cedar Rapids, IA) and stayed at his alma mater for three seasons (1953-55).

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Marvin Daniel Levy was a standout running back in football and a sprinter on the track team at Coe College, and was a Phi Beta Kappa graduate from the institution (1950). He earned a master's degree in English History from Harvard University (1951). As a native of Chicago, he graduated from Chicago's South Shore High School (1946) and lives in Orchard Park, NY.

HOBBIES/INTERESTS: Levy enjoys physical fitness and jogging and reads English literature and historical novels. He has been an avid Chicago Cubs fan since childhood and is also a boxing fan, particularly the career of Joe Louis. In his free time, Levy serves as a volunteer spokesman for Literacy Volunteers and United Way Services and visits hospitalized veterans several times a year.

good quickness for his exceptional size and great strength...was the 285th pick overall in the '87 draft.

1991: Became a fixture at RT in his 3rd season as a starter by being named to Pro Football Weekly's All-AFC team and the Ford All-Madden team...was a direct beneficiary of OL Coach Tom Bresnahan's counter series blocking schemes, which enabled the huge tackle to pull on the line of scrimmage and bury would-be tacklers in front of Bills RBs...made his 55th consecutive start at RT in Super Bowl XXVI.

1990: Made perhaps the greatest strides in improvement of any Bills player in '90...became an immovable force on the Bills line as an imposing protector for Buffalo QBs...was selected to UPI All-AFC 2nd team...was the RT on the '90 OL which gave up the fewest sacks (27) since 1981's group gave up 16 (in a non-strike season).

1989: Drew his first NFL start in the opener at Miami and started every game at RT...made steady improvement with each game...continued to play the middle of the Bills' FG and X-PT defensive block teams.

1988: Was the only rookie among the OL on the '88 Bills' roster...backed up Joe Devlin at RT...played in only 10 offensive plays in '88, but worked with the FG defensive unit and X-PT defensive unit...partially blocked an X-PT and FG in 23-20 victory over New England...played in 2 series late in 2nd win over Miami.

PRO: One of the most feared LBs in the game today with his great speed, strength, agility and quickness...became the first player in NFL history, AFC or NFC, offense or defense, to be named Player-of-the-Week in successive weeks when he did so in 1990...has appeared in the last 4 Pro Bowls...came to Buffalo in one of the most complex trades in NFL history between the Bills, Colts and Rams (See MAJOR TRADES).

1991: Was chosen as UPI AFC Defensive Player of the Year in a season that saw him play 5 different positions (OLB, ILB, MLB, DE and NT)...also selected to the Newspaper Enterprise Assoc. All-Pro first team, Dr. Z's All-Pro team, Ford's All-Madden team, UPI All-AFC team, Pro Football Weekly All-AFC team and Football News AFC All-Pro team...led the Bills in sacks (9), QB Pressures (21) and tied for the lead in FFs with Talley (4)...made a rare "triple play" in front of a Monday night national TV audience when he hit Miami QB Dan Marino, forced him to fumble, picked up the ball and ran 6 yards for the TD (2nd TD of his career)...named AFC Defensive Player of the Week (4) against Tampa Bay...posted a 5-game streak with at least 1 sack (11/3 Patriots-12/1 Jets).

1990: Was selected to the UPI All-AFC Team...was named AFC Defensive Player-of-the-Week vs. Denver (9/30) when he recorded 8 TTs and 1 FR in addition to scoring his first NFL TD, an 80 yard return of a blocked FG, in one of the pivotal plays of the Bills season...won the prestigious honor a record second consecutive time the following week by making 15 TTs, 4 for losses, 1 sack, 1 FF and 1 FR in the win over the Raiders...led Buffalo in QB Pressures with 18...was the leading non-DB in PDs with 7 and tied for 3rd in sacks with 4.

1989: Finished 6th in team tackles with 54 and 3rd in sacks with 5.5, despite missing 5 games with an injured left knee...injured the knee on the first play of the New England game (11/19) and missed the remainder of the game in addition to sitting out Weeks 12-15...also hampered by an injured shoulder most of the year...returned to action in Week 16 and recorded 5 solos, 2 sacks and 1 INT against the Jets...was selected to the UPI AFC second team...recorded his 200th career tackle against Miami (10/29) in only his 2nd full NFL season...made 1 UT in playoff game at Cleveland.

1988: Recorded a banner year that included such accolades as being selected to the Pro Bowl and was a first team All-Pro choice on teams named by the AP, Pro Football Writers Association, The Sporting News, College and Pro Football Weekly, Football News, Pro Football Weekly and World Almanac...also selected as the NFLPA AFC Linebacker-of-the-Year, AFC Defensive Player-of-the-Month (October) and Player-of-the-Week several times...was the 2nd leading tackler for the Bills in '88 with 103...was also 2nd on the team in sacks with 9.5...had his 1st career INT in the opener against Minnesota after it was tipped by DE Art Still...his 3rd FR of the year helped set up the winning FG in the OT victory over the Jets to clinch the AFC East title.

1987: Chosen to the UPI and Pro Football Weekly All-Rookie teams...SI's Paul Zimmerman selected him as Rookie-of-the-Year and was also so honored by the Washington Touchdown Club...participated in 8 games and started the final 7 at LOLB...was credited with 69 tackles, tying for team's 5th best of the season...made his initial appearance against Denver and contributed 4 tackles, 1 sack and 2 QB pressures...moved into the starting lineup the next week against Cleveland and remained in the spot that had been occupied by Shane Conlan, who moved inside...by teaming up with Conlan, the linebacking crew recorded 22 sacks in the final 8 games after compiling just 8 in the first 4...finished the season by earning AFC Defensive Player-of-the-Week following his standout performance against the Eagles, including 17 tackles with 4 sacks and 3 FFs...tied for 5th in AFC sacks with 8.5, despite playing only 8 games...led all Buffalo players in FFs with 5.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Full name—Cornelius O'landa Bennett...nicknamed "Biscuit" because he was notorious for eating so many of his mother's biscuits as a child...was awarded the Sington Trophy, representing the outstanding professional male Athlete-of-the-Year in Alabama, during the '89 offseason...one of the greatest defensive players in University of Alabama history...was named to various All-America and All-SEC teams 3 years in succession and finished his career with 287 tackles...also added 16 sacks, 6 FF's, 2 INT's, 15 PD's and 3 FR's in his Crimson Tide career...became the first LB to win the prestigious Vince Lombardi trophy, given annually to the top lineman in the country, when he did so in '86...was also a finalist for the Dick Butkus Award...led the Crimson Tide to 2 Sun Bowl bids and a trip to the Aloha Bowl...prepped at Ensley High School in Birmingham where he was the state's top high school prospect as a senior...ran for 1,099 yds. as a FB and caught 12 TD passes as a TE the same year...alternated at LB, DE and DB...studied social work at Alabama.

PRO: Bills made a trade with Houston on draft day in which the 2 clubs exchanged 1st round picks...Bills used that 1st-round choice to select Conlan...was selected to play in the Pro Bowl following the '88, '89 and '90 seasons to match his Rookie-of-the-Year honors in '87...plays exceptionally well against the run and has great instinct.

1991: Had his most productive season, leading the team in tackles with 122 total, but, ironically, was not selected to the Pro Bowl...stuffed Buc's RB Reggie Cobb on a 3rd-and-one at the Buffalo one-yard line which forced Tampa Bay to settle for a game tying FG and enabled the Bills to take their next possession for the game winning score...continued to make the big play when needed by recovering a fumble that eventually led to the winning TD against New England (11/3)...recorded the most tackles in a '91 game with 16 at Kansas City (10/7)...moved to outside LB when Bennett moved inside at Miami (11/18)...did not record a single tackle in S.B.XXVI after leaving the game early in the first quarter with a knee injury.

1990: Was named to the AP All-Pro 2nd Team and UPI All-AFC 2nd Team in addition to being selected to play in his 3rd consecutive Pro Bowl following his first injury-free NFL season...was also selected to the AP NFL second team and the UPI All-AFC squad...finished 5th in team tackles with 93...was the Bills' leading tackler in 1990 postseason play with 34 TTs and led the team in tackling in each of the 3 play-off games.

Week 2 kept him on IR for the next 6 weeks...returned to the starting lineup against Indianapolis following his knee injury after being used sparingly the week before at Atlanta...was forced to leave the Seahawk game with an injured ankle and the 49ers game with a mild concussion...turned in a stellar performance in the playoff game at Cleveland by making 11 TTs.

1988: Was selected to play in the Pro Bowl along with being named to first team All-Pro squads by UPI, PFWA, The Sporting News, College and Pro Football Weekly, Football News, Pro Football Weekly and AP All-Pro 2nd Team...finished the season as the Bills' 3rd leading tackler with 84, despite missing 3 games, which the Bills lost, with a foot injury, he suffered against the Jets...suffered a deep bruise injury to his right lower leg against Chicago...suffered a mild concussion against Green Bay and missed part of the 1st half, but returned in the 2nd...did not play against Houston in the playoffs because of the foot problem.

1987: Had an outstanding rookie season which he capped by winning a number of all-rookie accolades...finished the season by leading the club with 114 tackles, 33 more than the 2nd place finisher...was the 1st rookie to lead the team in tackles since Shane Nelson did so in 1977...missed the first couple of weeks of training camp before signing 8/2/87...demonstrated his outstanding athletic ability by starting the first 5 games at LOLB and then moving inside when Cornelius Bennett signed...was chosen as the Old Spice/NFL Rookie-of-the-Year...the award carried a $25,000 stipend which he donated along with his $1,000 as the Buffalo club winner to the Retired New York State Troopers' Helping Hands, a non-profit group which assists terminally ill children and their families.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Full name—Shane Patrick Conlan...won consensus All-America honors at Penn State as a senior and helped the Nittany Lions to a 12-0 record and a National Championship...Head Coach Joe Paterno called him the best LB to ever suit up for the school...voted Defensive Player-of-the-Game in the memorable 14-10 victory over Miami in the Fiesta Bowl...his 274 career tackles ranks in a 2nd place tie with John Skorupan (a former member of the Bills 1973-74) on the all-time PSU list...was 2nd team All-America as a junior...had 16 career sacks, 4 FR's and 2 INT's...was defensive MVP as a junior in the Orange Bowl vs. Oklahoma with 9 tackles and a FR...played in Fiesta, Orange and Aloha Bowls...attended Frewsburg Central High School near Jamestown, about 70 miles from Rich Stadium...starred in football and basketball and once played in Rich Stadium in a high school playoff game...was also a fine baseball player (catcher) who attracted some pro interest...represented the Bills' in the 1989 nationally broadcast commercial for Diet Coke...his father is an investigator for the New York State Police...has a degree in administration of justice...wife's name - Caroline.

PRO: Has proven his worth to the Bills as a more than capable backup to Thurman Thomas, giving extra effort on every play he's involved in, including special teams...has a quick, slashing running style...joined the Bills under the NFL's Plan B program in spring of 1989... Originally drafted by the Green Bay Packers (D-2,'86) as their top selection...led the Packers in rushing in 1987 (413 yards) and 1986 (519 yards).

1991: Set or tied 5 single-season personal bests, including 129 attempts (former best-114), 624 yards rushing (former best-519), 78t longest run (former best-50), 4 rushing TDs in a season (former best-3) and recorded his first season with two 100-yard performances...his 78-yard TD run vs. the Colts (10/13) was the longest in the NFL in 1991...teamed with Thomas for two 100-yards rushers in Colts game (10/13) marking the first time Bills RBs accomplished the feat since 10/29/89 vs. Miami when Thomas and Kinnebrew did so...played an important role each week in all phases of the specials teams...will probably be remembered forever as the answer to the trivia question, "Who started for Thurman Thomas in S.B.XXVI when he could not locate his helmet?"

1990: Finished 2nd in rushing for the Bills with 302 yards...offensive line stated after several games how much they enjoyed blocking for Davis because of his enthusiasm to play with 2nd and 3rd efforts in running the ball...tied an NFL playoff record by scoring 3 TDs in the championship win over the Raiders.

1989: Was used sparingly as a backup who also had the opportunity to return some kickoffs on special teams duty...finished 3rd for the Bills in rushing with 149 yards...scored his first TD as a Bill on a 17-yard pass from QB Frank Reich in loss at Indianapolis.

1988: Started first 7 games of the season for Green Bay before spraining an ankle in the first quarter at Minnesota in Week 7...was then placed on IR and remained sidelined for 7 weeks...returned to action in Week 15 and finished out the season in a backup role.

1987: Recorded his finest day as a pro at Detroit (10/25/87), rushing for 129 yards in 23 carries with TD runs of 39 and 28 yards...missed 2 games with a bruised sternum (Bears 11/29 and 49ers 12/6).

1986: Became the team's leading rusher with 519 yards as a rookie...recorded the longest run from scrimmage (50 yards) permitted all season by the eventual Super Bowl champs Giants...made major contributions on special teams, averaging 19.3 yards for 12 KO returns and recording 7 solos on coverage units.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Full name—Kenneth Earl Davis...set TCU single season (1,611 yards in 1984) and career (2,944 yards in 493 attempts) records for rushing...finished 5th in Heisman voting in '84...TCU's first consensus All-American (1984) since Bob Lilly in 1959...earned the nickname "Texas Twister" in Heisman hunt at TCU...1 of 12 children...father of daughter, Danielle Olliniesse (10/21/87)...aspires to be a professional pool player after football...Led his Temple, TX, High School team to an unbeaten season and a state title.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Seattle Seahawks are the only NFL club to have never played a preseason or regular season game at Rich Stadium in the 18 seasons the stadium has been in existence. The Bills have met the Seahawks four times in regular season and twice in preseason prior to 1991. All six games have been in the Kingdome...Though the Tampa Bay Buccaneers have never played a regular season game at Rich Stadium, they have played during the preseason. In a pre-season contest at Rich Stadium (9/3/77), Buffalo defeated Tampa Bay 17-6.

PRO: Perhaps the premier center in the NFL, though he was overlooked in the 1991 Pro Bowl balloting after appearing in the previous 3 consecutive Pro Bowls...anchors what some experts have referred to as the best offensive line in pro football the past couple of seasons...joined the Bills as a FA just prior to the start of the 1986 season and has been the starting center since that time...spent 3 years in the USFL with New Jersey prior to coming to the Bills...was a 7th-round draft choice of the Generals in '83...an image of durability who has not missed an offensive snap in 8 pro seasons.

1991: Grew in his role as one of the Bills' true team leaders and again gathered such honors as AP All-Pro first team, Pro Football Writers of America All-Pro team, SI's Dr. Z's All-Pro team, UPI All-AFC squad and Football News AFC All-Pro team...was instrumental in not allowing Miami (9/1) to sack either Jim Kelly or Frank Reich...started his 92nd consecutive regular season game vs. Detroit (12/22).

1990: Had an outstanding season, despite playing the last few regular season and playoff games with a broken index finger on his snapping hand...was selected to the All-Pro First Teams by AP, PFWA, Pro Football Weekly, The Sporting News, NEA, College and Pro Football Weekly, Football Digest and SI's Dr. Z...was also selected to the All-AFC First Team by UPI and Football News...was instrumental in not allowing the Colts (9/9), Raiders (10/7) or Eagles (12/2) to sack QB Jim Kelly...helped clear the way for RB Thurman Thomas' five 100-yard games...was taken out of the Colts game (12/9) in the fourth quarter as a gesture for a job well done, marking the first time he did not play center on a regular offensive play since his days in the USFL.

1989: Was selected to the UPI All-AFC squad, College and Pro Football Newsweekly All-Pro team, The Sporting News NFL All-Pro team, Pro Football Weekly's All-Pro team and AP's All-Pro Second Team...went the entire season without a single bad snap to the QBs.

1988: Was elected to the Pro Bowl as a reserve center, the first time a Buffalo offensive lineman was so honored since Joe DeLamielleure held the distinction in 1979...also was named to the 1st team UPI All-AFC squad and 2nd team AP All-Pro unit.

1987: Took every snap with the Bills' offense and continued his development as one of the finest centers in the AFC.

1986: Signed with the Bills in the middle of training camp after being pursued as a FA by 9 clubs...moved into the starting lineup at center for the 3rd preseason game, just 5 days after signing, and remained there since that time.

1983-85: Starting center for the New Jersey Generals (USFL) and played every offensive play during that time...his play was one of the big reasons the club had 2 backs—Herschel Walker and Maurice Carthon—go over 1,000 yds. apiece in '84.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Full name—James Kent Hull...was a 4-year starter at Mississippi St....played in the Sun and Hall of Fame Bowls...played in the Blue-Gray game...chose MSU in part because his father, Charles, played basketball at the school, which is 80 miles from Kent's home...Charles is the state of Mississippi's Director of Agriculture...has a 350-acre farm in Greenwood, MS with his father where he raises brood cows...attended Greenwood High and won all-state mention in both football and basketball...has a degree in business administration from MSU...Kent and his wife, Kay, have a son, Drew (2/2/87), and a daughter, Ellen (2/15/90).

1991: Set a new career single-season high with 4 INTs (3rd on the team)...started at LCB in the season opener vs. Miami, but then became a backup to J.D. Williams in the next 3 games...took over for the injured Williams at Tampa Bay in Week 4 and started every game the remainder of the regular season and in all 3 playoff games...made a big play by dropping Raiders' RB Marcus Allen for a 2 - yard loss on first and goal in the 3rd quarter...recorded his first career sack at Indianapolis (12/15)...was named the AFC Defensive Player of the Week for his 3-tackle, 2 INT, 4 PDs performance against Kansas City in the AFC Divisional playoff game (1/5/92)...also came up with one of the biggest plays in the championship win over Denver when he tackled Steve Sewell, forced a fumble and then scooped the ball away from the Denver RB while both were lying on the ground...gave the Bills new hope in S.B.XXVI when he intercepted a Redskin pass deep in Buffalo territory.

1990: Led the team in INTs (3) in an injury-plagued season that kept him out of 5 games...suffered a hamstring pull against the Browns (11/4)...then injured his knee the following week vs. the Cardinals (11/11)...was inactive the next week vs. the Patriots (11/18) and played only 1 series in the Oilers game (11/26)...was used sparingly against the Eagles (12/2) because of a sore hamstring and then pulled it the next week while making an INT against the Colts (12/9)...was placed on IR 12/14 and remained on the list until the beginning of the playoffs, where he started all 3 games.

1989: Came in on nickel and dime situations in the season opener in Miami and was then on the inactive list for the next 2 games with a hamstring injury...returned to action in Week 4 against New England, but played as a starter for the injured Burroughs instead of a backup role and special teamer...Made 2 INTs, including one he returned 40 yards for a TD, against Miami (10/29).

1988: Started the season on IR (8/17) with a hamstring injury, but was activated in Week 9 against Green Bay...played the remainder of the season in a reserve role, recording 7 tackles.

1987: Went to training camp with the Jets and was with the club until the final roster cut to 45 when he was waived...signed with the Rams for the replacement games in late September and then played in 5 games for the club, including 3 starts at CB for its replacement team...scored his first pro TD when he recovered a blocked punt in the end zone against Pittsburgh...waived in mid-November by the Rams and signed with Buffalo 10 days later...spent the last portion of the year on Buffalo's inactive list.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Full name—Kirby Jackson...was a 3-year starter at CB at Mississippi State...contributed 196 tackles and 5 INT's for the Bulldogs...attended Sturgis High in Sturgis, MS, before graduating from MSU with a degree in accounting...was a QB and DB in high school...won all-state honors as a senior.

PRO: Has established himself as one of the premier professional football players in the world today and has made his name synonymous with the "no-huddle" offense...originally drafted by the Bills with their second pick in the first round in the 1983 draft, but signed with the USFL and played 2 seasons with the Houston Gamblers before coming to Buffalo just prior to the start of the 1986 season...signed on 8/19/86...was the third of 6 QB's taken in the first round in the '83 NFL draft...the Bills obtained the choice used to select Kelly in a trade with Cleveland for Tom Cousineau in '82...was the 500th player the Bills ever drafted...signed a 6-year contract in 1990...enters the 1992 season needing only 426 passing yards to reach 20,000 for his career.

1991: Rose to the challenge of leading the Bills back to the Super Bowl and along the way accumulated such honors as a selection on the All-Pro teams named by AP, PFWA, The Sporting News, NEA and Sports Illustrated's Dr. Z...was also named to Pro Football Weekly's All-NFL team, Ford All-Madden team, UPI All-AFC squad, Pro Football Weekly All-AFC unit, Football News AFC All-Pro team and College and Pro Football Weekly All-Pro second team...was selected by the NFL as the AFC Offensive Player of the Month for September and Player of the Week for Weeks 2 (vs. Pittsburgh) and 15 (at the Raiders)...was selected for his third Pro Bowl...once again directed the Buffalo offense to its number one NFL ranking...was the number one ranked AFC QB with a rating of 97.6 and the NFL in TD passes with 33...set new Bills individual single-season records for completions (474), completion percentage (64.13), yards passing (3,844), TD passes (33) and 300-yard games (6)...also set 4 career single game highs for yards passing (392 vs. Cincinnati), most attempts (52 at the Raiders), most completions (33 at the Raiders) and most TDs (6 vs. Pittsburgh)...broke Joe Ferguson's 1979 team record of four 300-yard passing games in a season with his fifth vs. Cincinnati

(10/21)...completed 10 passes over 40 yards in 1991, 7 of which were for touchdowns...set a new Super Bowl record for passing attempts with 58, eclipsing Dan Marino's mark of 50 in S.B. XIX.

1990: Climbed into the status of the NFL's elite QBs with a season full of accolades and milestones...was chosen as the Washington Touchdown Club's NFL Player-of-the-Year, the National Quarterback Club's Professional Quarterback-of-the-Year and the winner of the 1990 John Mackey Award as the top rated quarterback (101.2) of the year in addition to being selected to the UPI All-AFC 2nd team and SI's Dr. Z's All-Pro team...made his second trip (first was in '87, but did not play) to the Pro Bowl a memorable one by being voted the game's MVP...posted a 101.3 QB rating for the season (highest in the NFL in '90) and became only the fifth QB to maintain a rating over 100 since the 1973 ratings format was implemented (Stabler-103.7 in '76, Jones-102.6 in '76, Marino-108.9 in '84 and Montana-102.9 in '84, 102.1 in '87 and 112.4 in '89)...moved into second place ahead of Jack Kemp on Bills' all-time career passing completions and yardage lists...gave the Bills a 14-10 halftime lead against the Giants (12/15) before he was forced to leave the game just prior to the intermission with partial tears in both the medial collateral ligament and the cartilage behind the knee...missed the final 2 regular season games (Miami and Washington), but proved his toughness by returning to the starting lineup in the Bills first playoff game (vs. Miami) and led Buffalo to 2 very impressive playoff victories en route to Super Bowl XXV...became the franchise's all-time leading postseason QB along the way by setting new standards in every passing category, except longest completion...eclipsed the AFC title game completion percentage record of 70.8 (17 of 24), held, ironically, by Jim Plunkett of the Raiders against Seattle in '83, by completing 73.9% of his passes (17 of 23) against the Silver and Black (1/20/91).

1989: Highlighted the season with one of the most dramatic comebacks in Bills' history by diving into the end zone for the winning TD on the final play of the season opener at Miami to give Buffalo a 27-24 victory...was rated third in the AFC (6th in NFL) in passing with a 86.2 mark (behind Cincinnati's Esiason and Houston's Moon)...threw 5 TD passes in Houston game to tie a Bills' record and tie Esiason for most in one game in the AFC in '89...was named AFC Player-of-the-Week in Weeks 1 and 3, marking the second time in his NFL career that he was recognized with the honor twice in 1 season...was also selected as the AFC Player-of-the-Month for September...suffered a separated left shoulder in Week 5 at Indianapolis when Colts' DE Jon Hand landed on him as he threw a TD pass...missed the next 3 games (Rams' game was the first NFL game of his career that he did not play in) before returning in the Atlanta game to record his best completion percentage (77.3) of his career...had most yards per attempt in AFC with 8.01...his 25-yard pass to Ronnie Harmon in Jets game (12/23) was 500th TD pass in club history...broke several Bills' playoff records at Cleveland...his 4 TD passes against the Browns tied him with 10 others for the NFL playoff record and set a new Bills' mark...the 72-yard TD strike to Andre Reed was the second longest in Bills' history...his 405 yards passing was the most for a single game in his career (also a Bills' playoff record)...28 completions vs. Cleveland set a club playoff record.

1988: His 269 completions during the regular season ranked third best in club history...rallied Buffalo from a 17-0 deficit in first half to a 34-23 win over the Colts in Week 6 with a 315-yard and 3 TD effort...suffered a right shoulder injury late in the season that caused him to miss the Pro Bowl, but was selected as an alternate.

1987: Was selected to play in his first Pro Bowl...twice named the AFC Offensive Player-of-the-Week (Week 2 vs. Houston, Week 7 @ Miami)...had a streak of 141 passes without an INT late in the year before New England's Fred Marion ended it with a theft in the 4th quarter at Buffalo in December...also had TD passes in 18 straight Bills games before that ended against the Patriots.

1986: Completed a Bills' record 285 passes (breaking Joe Ferguson's mark of 281 in 1983) in 480 attempts...missed most of the club's training camp after signing in mid-August...played in just 1 preseason game vs. Bears before making initial NFL start against Jets in opener...his 3,593 yds. was second best in Buffalo history...had a string of 104 passes without an INT.

1984-85: Record-setting member of the Houston Gamblers...completed 713 of 1,154 passes (63.3%) for 9,842 yds....tossed 83 TD's with 45 INT's...also rushed 113 times for 663 yards and 6 TD's...was sacked 110 times for 697 yds. lost...had 16 300-yard games and went over 400 yards 3 times...his best effort was against the LA Express in the '85 season opener when he was 35 of 54 for 574 yards and 5 TD's...the Gamblers were 22-10 in games Kelly started in the regular season and he failed to throw at least 1 TD pass in just 1 game...was the USFL's MVP in '84 when he set a record 5,219 passing yards and 44 TD's...twice named All-USFL.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Full name—James Edward Kelly...a standout at the University of Miami where he helped lead a resurgence in Hurricane football fortunes...helped the 'Canes to a Peach Bowl berth in 1980 and finished his career with 406 completions in 646 attempts (62.8%) for 5,233 yards...had 32 TD's...set several school records that were later broken by 2 of his UM teammates—Bernie Kosar and Vinny Testaverde...missed much of his senior year with a shoulder separation which he suffered vs. Virginia Tech in the third week of the season...was a Heisman Trophy candidate that year after a superb junior year in which he completed 168 of 286 passes for 2,403 yards and 14 TD's in leading UM to a 9-2 record...was the 10th rated passer in the NCAA as a junior and was chosen as the ABC-TV/Chevrolet Offensive Player-of-the-Game 3 times that season...one of those times came in Miami's 17-14 victory over Penn State, which ranked the 'Canes first in the country...played for coach Howard Schnellenberger, but was recruited to the school by former Bills' head coach Lou Saban...Earl Morrall was one of the QB coaches during part of his Miami career...was a prep standout at East Brady (PA) HS where he won all-state honors after passing for 3,915 yards and 44 TD's in his career...played in the Big 33 game following his senior year...also starred on defense and was heavily recruited as a LB by Penn St. Coach Joe Paterno...helped East Brady to the basketball state semifinals as a senior and averaged 23 points and 20 rebounds...scored over 1,000 pts. in his career and had 6 30-point games...is a former national semifinalist in the Punt, Pass and Kick competition (10-year old)...holds a degree in business management...one of his brothers, Pat, played with the Colts, Lions and Birmingham in the WFL while 3 other brothers also played collegiately...has a radio show locally and is also the host of the "Jim Kelly" television show...has made appearances on the David Letterman Show, Oprah Winfrey Show, Arsenio Hall Show and General Hospital in the past...was honored as the Leukemia Society Man of the Year in 1991...started his own celebrity golf tournament in the Buffalo area in 1987 to benefit local charities and raised over $100,000 last year at the event...his Jim Kelly End Zone Club was also founded in 1987 to benefit local charities...served as the Bills' spokesman in the 1989 United Way television spot...his "Kelly for Kids Foundation" has raised more than half a million dollars for Western New York charities since 1986...the proceeds from his "Kelly's Heroes" poster went to Western New York United Against Drugs and Alcohol Abuse...appeared as a witness before the U.S. Senate Investigation Hearing in the spring of '91 in efforts to combat fraud and abuse in the insurance industry.

PRO: An excellent long-snapper who has proven he is nearly flawless, even in the tough and tricky Buffalo weather...was re-signed by the Bills 3/25/89 through the Plan B program...had been waived 8/21/88 and was immediately claimed by Kansas City, playing all 16 games for the Chiefs in '88...originally selected in the 9th round (231st choice) by the Chiefs in the '83 draft...spent 3 years with the Chiefs and part of a 4th when waived by K.C....briefly joined New England (active for 1 game but did not play) before being waived...signed as a FA with Denver (5/87) and was waived near the end of the preseason.

1991: Continued to handle all of the long snapping duties on punts, FGs and PATs without a bad snap...made 1 AT on a punt at Tampa Bay (9/22) and vs. New England (11/3) with 1 UT on a punt return vs. Detroit (12/22).

1990: Had another error-less season of snapping in FG and punt situations, including the playoffs when he snapped perfectly despite two badly swollen fingers on his snapping hand from a hyperextension injury.

1989: Was a picture of consistency again in '89...had only one bad snap all season and that came in the snow and ice at Rich Stadium against New Orleans (12/10).

1988: Was waived by the Bills late in the preseason and signed with his original team, the Chiefs...played in all 16 games as K.C.'s long snapper.

1987: Joined the Bills as a FA in late August and ended up appearing in all 12 games and was the regular snapper on all kicks in those games...did not have a bad snap all year...also starred on some special teams units and contributed 5 tackles...his recovery of a Scott Schwede's fumble on a punt return helped set up a tying TD in a comeback win over Miami.

1986: Played in all 12 games for the Chiefs before being waived 11/24...handled all the club's long snapping in those games...signed with New England as a FA and was active for 1 game (New Orleans), but did not play.

1985: Appeared in all 16 games as a reserve center and long snapper...did see extensive duty in games against Miami and Houston when center Bob Rush was sidelined with injuries...had 11 kicking team tackles.

1984: Played in all 16 games and did all long snapping...played almost 3 quarters of the Seattle game in Week 15 when Rush was out with an injury...his snapping ability played a role in helping punter Jim Arnold to lead the AFC in his specialty...made 8 tackles on special teams.

1983: Made appearances in all 16 games as a rookie...saw extensive action in final 4 weeks of the season while filling in for Rush, who was out with an ankle problem...made his only NFL start in Week 15 vs. San Diego...had 8 kicking team tackles...was the Chief's lowest-round draft choice to make the team.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Full name—Adam James Lingner...had his own radio show on the Bills flagship station, WGR-AM, in 1990...has started a modeling career outside of football that includes shots in Sears Big and Tall catalog...won 4 letters as a center and deep snapper at the University of Illinois...was a reserve his first 3 seasons before taking over as the starter as a senior...the Illini won a Liberty Bowl berth his final season, but lost to Alabama in the late Bear Bryant's final game as a head coach...attended Alleman HS in Rock Island, IL, and lettered in 3 sports...studied community health at Illinois...Adam and his wife, Marcy, have 2 daughters, Amanda and Dayna.

PRO: The first NFL player to score a TD in the 1970's, 80's and 90's...selected to the All-National Football League second team of the 1980's by the 26 members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame Board...enters the 1992 season as the second ranked active NFL receiver behind Washington's Art Monk...selected by his peers to play in the Pro Bowl in 1978 and 1980-85, 1991 (8 times)...fourth on the NFL's all-time receiving list with 699 receptions entering the 1992 season...second on the league's list for receiving yards with 13,035 entering the '92 campaign...a durable athlete who has missed only one game in his career due to an injury (Detroit-12/22/91—foot)...selected by the Packers in 1978 (6th player chosen overall) and remained with the club until 1987 when he was traded to the Raiders for a third round pick in '87 and a 4th rounder in '88...holds the Packers' all-time receiving record (530 receptions)...led Green Bay in receiving every year he was with the club (1978-86), except 1979 when TE Paul Coffman was the leader...started 136 consecutive games for Green Bay and caught at least 1 pass in each, except 4—1 in 1979 (vs. Detroit-10/14), 1 in 1983 (vs. Cincinnati-10/30) and 2 in 1984 (vs. the Raiders-9/9 and vs. Tampa Bay-12/2)...signed with the Bills 9/26/89.

ENTERING 1992: Needs just 55 yards to break Steve Largent's NFL record for all-time receiving yards of 13,089...his next reception will give him 700 for his career...Needs 52 catches to pass Charlie Joiner into the third slot on the NFL all-time receiving list.

1991: Put together a season that was an inspiration to teammates, coaches and fans by re-establishing himself as one of the elite receivers in the NFL, all at age 35...was selected by his peers to return to the Pro Bowl, his eighth, after a five-year hiatus...his 77-yard output vs. Miami (9/1) put him over the 12,000-yards receiving mark for his career...became the oldest player in league history to record 1,000 yards receiving in a season...with 4 catches vs. Pittsburgh (9/8), he moved ahead of Charley Taylor into fifth place in all-time receptions...a 79-yard performance at the Jets (9/15) moved him ahead of Charlie Joiner into second in all-time NFL receiving yards...moved ahead of Ozzie Newsome into fourth place among all-time receivers with 5 catches at Tampa Bay (9/22)...established a new career-high with 220 yards receiving vs. Cincinnati (10/21), becoming only the fourth player in Bills history to record over 200 yards receiving in a single game...was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance vs. the Bengals and it marked his 40th regular season game with over 100 yards receiving...recorded his 42nd regular season 100-yard performance vs. the Jets (12/1), which ironically, in the second highest in NFL history behind former Jet Don Maynard's 50...played his 200th career regular season game vs. New England (11/3)...caught the game-tying TD pass in the comeback victory over the Raiders (12/8)...scored 70th career TD (69 rec., 1 rush.) at Indianapolis (12/15).

1990: Re-emerged into national prominence with a stellar season and had the team's best yards-per-catch average with 20.3...recorded 4 of the Bills' 6 longest pass plays of the season with a 71-yarder and 63t-yarder against the Eagles, a 60t-yarder vs. the Jets (10/21) and a 52-yarder vs. New England (11/18)...moved into third place on the NFL's all-time receiving yards list ahead of Jets' Don Maynard in the Philadelphia game...really proved his value in the playoffs with back-to-back 100-yards receiving performances that included 7 catches for 149 yards and 1 TD vs. Miami (1/12) and 5 catches for 113 yards and 2 TDs vs. the Raiders (1/20)...made 1 catch in the Super Bowl, an incredible 61-yard reception off a tipped pass that led to the Bills first score.

1989: Joined the Bills when WR Chris Burkett was waived...saw his first action 2 weeks later at Indianapolis (10/8)...first reception as a Bill was also his 600th career catch and was made in the Atlanta game (11/4)...became a starter in the New Orleans game (12/10)...caught 3 passes, including a 33-yard TD, in playoff game at Cleveland...broke his string of starting every game he had played when he entered the Indianapolis game.

1988: The 4th-leading receiver for the Raiders with 28 catches...had 2 100-yard receiving games (vs. Rams & vs. Miami)...had season-long 57-yard reception vs. Rams.

1987: Was traded by Green Bay to the Raiders (4/13/87) for 3rd-round pick in 1987 draft and 4th-round pick in 1988...finished third among Raider receivers (41 catches) and first among wideouts (RB Marcus Allen was first and TE Todd Christensen was second)...averaged 21.5 yards per catch, the highest in the AFC.

1986: Led all Packer receivers with 64 catches...tied for Packer scoring lead among non-kickers with 24 points...placed on the NFL's suspended list 12/18 through the remainder of the season (1 game).

1985: Was voted to his 7th Pro Bowl, the 6th consecutive time to be honored...became only the 5th receiver in NFL history to gain 1,000 yards in 5 or more seasons, accumulating 1,153 yards to join Lance Alworth, Steve Largent, Don Maynard and Art Powell in this elite category.

1984: Again led the NFL in average yards per catch (22.0) for the 2nd straight year...again selected to the Pro Bowl...had a career-high 206 yards receiving in a snowstorm in Denver (10/15) on Monday Night...the 206 yards was an NFL season high...also had a career-high 11 catches in the game...broke his own Packer single season record for receiving yards with 1,361.

1983: Was selected to his 5th Pro Bowl, 4th consecutive...led the NFL in average yards per catch (22.4)...caught 3 TDs vs. Pittsburgh (9/11), the 2nd time in his career to catch 3 TD passes in 1 game...named to the Pro Football Writers' of America All-NFL team...one of 5 finalists in NFL "Man of the Year" competition.

1982: Once again made the trip to Hawaii to play in the Pro Bowl, this time after leading the Packers to the playoffs in the strike-shortened season...named to College and Pro Football Weekly's All-Pro team and UPI's All-NFC first team...recorded the longest reception of his career, an 80-yard TD vs. Atlanta (12/26)...was the second most productive pass catcher in the NFC, gaining 696 yards on 35 receptions...recorded 2 outstanding runs on reverses, scoring an 83-yard TD against the Giants on Monday Night and a 71-yard TD at Dallas in the NFC playoffs...the 83-yard run vs. the Giants was the 3rd longest from scrimmage in Packer history...the 71-yard run tied an NFL playoff record at the time for the longest run from scrimmage (Hugh McElhenny; 71 yards; San Francisco vs. Detroit; 1957)...finished the season as Green Bay's 4th-leading rusher, though he carried the ball only 4 times.

1981: Was selected by his peers to play in his 3rd Pro Bowl...consensus all-pro selection for the 2nd consecutive season...set a Packer single season mark for receiving yards with 1,294, set by Bill Howton in 1952 with 1,231 yards...the 1,294 yards was the 2nd most in the NFL.

1980: Played in his 2nd Pro Bowl...consensus all-pro pick...led all NFC receivers in yards gained (1,226)...his 71 catches ranked second in Packer history at the time behind the legendary Don Hutson's 74 in 1942.

1979: First Green Bay receiver to catch 100 passes in his first 2 seasons...posted second best average per catch (17.9) in the NFC.

1978: Was chosen as the NFC's Offensive Rookie of the Year by the NFL.

Players' Association...capped off an outstanding rookie season by being selected to play in the Pro Bowl...caught 3 TD passes in just his 2nd pro game (vs. New Orleans—9/9), the first Green Bay receiver to accomplish the feat since Max McGee turned the trick vs. the Rams in 1963.

PRO: Has become a force in the Bills offensive scheme with his outstanding athletic skills...played just one year of collegiate football when the Bills drafted him in the 9th round in 1987...was a standout college basketball player who has made a smooth transition to an NFL TE...QB Jim Kelly may have characterized McKeller best by calling him "a wide receiver in a tight end's body."

1991: Finished fourth in receiving for the Bills with 42 catches...scored the winning TD at Tampa Bay (9/22) on a 29-yard pass from Kelly with just over 5 minutes remaining...had one of the best days of his career at the Raiders (12/8) when he caught 10 passes, one for a TD...that game put him over the 100 mark in career receptions, making him only the 25th player in Bills' history to hit the century mark.

1990: Was the 4th leading receiver for the Bills with 35 catches, just one behind James Lofton, in his first season as a starter...tied Reuben Gant's 1978 club record of 5 TD catches in one season for a TE...caught 3 passes for 15 yards, including a crucial 4th-down grab, vs. the Dolphins (1/12) in the playoffs...added 3 more catches in the Raiders playoff game (1/20) and 2 in Super Bowl XXV.

1989: First catch of the season was a safety valve pass he turned into a 39-yard TD vs. the Patriots (10/1)...Started 7 games when the Bills lined up in a 2-TE offense...had a streak of 9 games with at least 1 reception in the middle of the '89 campaign.

1988: Was a reserve TE and special teams player in 12 games...was on the inactive list for the other 4 games...had 10 special teams tackles which ranked 7th.

1987: Played in just 1 game during the season...was the starting TE in 3rd replacement game against the Giants...had an outstanding day, catching 9 passes for 80 yds. with a long of 22...had spent the early part of the year on IR (back)...was on the Bills' 50-man roster following the strike, but did not suit up for any of the final 10 games.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Full name—Terrell Keith McKeller...played just 1 year of football at Jacksonville State in Alabama after playing 4 years of basketball...had 26 receptions for 449 yds. and scored 3 TD's...caught passes in all but 1 game...averaged 12.5 points and 10.1 rpg...ranks 2nd on the all-time Gamecocks rebound list with 1,209...also scored 1,495 points and helped the team to the NCAA Division II title in 1985 over South Dakota St....won All-Gulf South Conference honors 4 years in succession...won first team honors in football...prepped at Fairfield High in Alabama...2nd team all-state in football...attracted more college football offers than basketball in high school...studied sociology at JSU...Keith and his wife, Donya, have one son, Darius (6/4/91).

PRO: Became the Bills' all-time leading receiver for TE's when he made his 128th catch in the Patriots game (10/1/89), surpassing Reuben Gant's old mark of 127....ranks 10th on the Bills' all-time receiving list....excellent blocker....drafted in the 3rd round by Seattle in 1982 and the Bills obtained him in a trade for WR Byron Franklin in 1985.

1991: Played in his 100th game in a Bills uniform vs. Pittsburgh (9/8)...in his first start since 12/2/90 vs. Philadelphia, he recorded a career long 51-yard TD reception against Cincinnati (10/21), the longest of his career....caught his 10th career receiving TD with Buffalo at Indianapolis (12/15), which places him in a four-way tie for second on the TD list for TE's....caught a 2-yard TD pass from Kelly in S.B.XXVI.

1990: Was utilized more for his blocking skills, especially in short-yardage situations....caught his solo TD pass of the year in Houston (11/26)...saw limited action in all 3 playoff games.

1989: Made his record 128th catch in the New England game (10/1) and then came back moments later to grab an 8-yard TD pass....preserved a Bills victory against the Dolphins (10/29) when he recovered an onside kick late in the game.

1988: Had 8 catches of 20 yards or more...was a Pro Bowl alternate.

1987: Caught at least 1 pass in first 11 games before being blanked in final contest vs. Eagles....that ended his streak at 27 games with at least 1 catch which was longest on team.

1986: Had his best year as a pro...started all 16 games for the first time in his career and set a mark for catches by a Buffalo TE in a season with 49...was the only player to catch a pass in every game...had a career-high 7 catches for 113 yards, and 2 TDs at Tampa Bay (11/2)...scored a TD at Cincinnati when a Ricky Moore fumble bounced into his arms in the end zone.

1985: Joined the Bills in late August in a trade with Seattle...played in 16 games and made 8 starts...started the first 6 games before backing up Eason Ramson much of the rest of the year...did start again in Weeks 10-11 when Bills' started 2 TE's.

1984: Slowed part of the year with a knee injury which put him on IR for 6 weeks with Seattle...started 4 of the first 7 games before the injury...returned to play in the final 3 weeks and also played in 2 playoff games.

1983: Made 7 starts in regular season and 3 in playoffs and scored Seattle's 2nd TD in 31-7 win over Denver in AFC Wild Card game.

1982: Played in all 9 games in strike-abbreviated season with starts against Houston and Chicago...had 4 catches for 48 yds. vs. Oilers in first pro start.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Full name—Peter Henry Metzelaars...had a legendary athletic career at Wabash College in Indiana where he starred in football and basketball...won first team all-america honors in football as a senior and was a 2-time all-american in basketball...finished his career with 77 receptions for 1,196 yds. and 9 TD's...won 4 letters in football and basketball and helped Wabash to the NCAA Div. PRO: Is a good complimentary FB for Thurman Thomas with his excellent blocking ability and tough running style...Bills obtained choice for Mueller in a trade with San Francisco for Joe Cribbs prior to the '87 season...is also an excellent special teams player...needs just 99 yards rushing to reach the 1,000-yard milestone for his career.

1991: Sat out the entire season after experiencing a sore neck and numbness in the fingers of his left hand during training camp practices...was placed on IR 8/27...went to several specialists during the season in an attempt to find out what the injury might be, but no concrete answer was formulated.

1990: Had the best season of his career after dropping over 10 pounds in the offseason to become quicker, yet lost very little strength...worked very hard on his pass-catching ability in the offseason and became a good receiver, which he demonstrated against the Jets (10/21) when he caught a 14-yard pass with 19 seconds remaining to give the Bills a 30-27 win...also showcased his new-found pass-catching ability by snaring at least one pass in 5 consecutive games at one point in the season...proved his worth as a valuable blocker in the Eagles game (12/2) when he made excellent downfield blocks to enable Bills receivers to score 2 TDs...was a critical member of Buffalo's KO coverage unit...his real special teams forte was on the punt coverage unit where he led the team in solo tackles with 7.

1989: Was 1 of the 2 inactive players in the 2 games he did not play...played at Houston in Week 3, but did not start for the first time since 10/23/88 because of a sore ankle he twisted on the first play of the Denver game the previous week.

1988: Started at FB in 15 of 16 games...missed the Patriots game in Week 8 with an ankle injury...had best rushing outing in Week 6 against the Colts with 15 atts. for 70 yds...led all Bills' rushers in AFC title game vs. Cincinnati with 21 yds. on 8 carries.

PRO: Recognized as the Bills "ace reliever" for his outstanding performances as Buffalo's starting QB when Jim Kelly is injured...has not received the accolades he deserves as the holder on PAT and FG attempts...is the man Jim Kelly looks to first for calls from the bench.

REICH, continued

1991: Had another strong showing in relief of Jim Kelly vs. Miami (9/1) and hit TE Butch Rolle with a 3-yard TD pass...replaced Kelly again vs. Indianapolis (10/13) when the starter left with a concussion and went 6 for 6 with 2 TD tosses...maintained the Bills lead at Green Bay (11/10) when Kelly was knocked out of action with a back injury.

1990: Was 15 of 21 for 234 yards with 2 TDs and 0 INTs in the most important start of his career when he led the Bills to victory over Miami (12/23) in a game that decided the AFC East champion and the home field advantage throughout the playoffs...replaced an injured Kelly (knee) in the 2nd quarter of the Giants game the week before and preserved a 4-point halftime lead to give Buffalo a 17-13 win.

1989: Made his first NFL start in Week 6 against the Rams and silenced the critics by engineering 2 late 4th-quarter drives...the first consisting of 10 plays, covering 86 yards and culminating with Reich finding RB Thurman Thomas for a 1-yard TD pass to give the Bills their first lead of the game with only 2:23 remaining...came back moments later (following a quick Rams' TD) to lead the Buffalo offense 64 yards in 7 plays and hit WR Andre Reed with a perfect 8-yard TD pass with 16 seconds remaining in one of the Bills' most exciting victories in history...finished the dramatic evening with 21 of 37 completions for 214 yards and 2 TDs...returned the next week to lead the Bills to a 34-3 demolition of the Jets...was 13 of 20 for 145 yards and 3 TDs in the game...made it 3-in-a-row the next week by defeating Miami, 31-17, throwing a perfect 63-yard bomb to speedster Don Beebe... replaced an injured Kelly in the 4th quarter of the Colts game (10/8)...that game marked the first time he had thrown a pass since facing Denver (12/14/86).

1988: Saw his first action of the season vs. Jets (first game) with 7 minutes remaining.

1987: Did not get into a game during the season...saw extensive duty in 4 preseason games and finished with 32 completions in 69 attempts for 397 yards and a TD.

1986: Appeared in 3 games, all in relief of Kelly...made his first appearance against K.C. (9/28) when Kelly left for 2 series with a bruised forearm...played 2 series before Kelly's return...had his best effort while playing nearly 2 quarters against the Colts (12/14) when Kelly left with a concussion late in the first quarter...directed Buffalo to a score in his first series (92 yards) and was 7 of 10 for 89 yards in the game.

1985: Was active for just 3 games...spent the first 13 weeks on IR with an achilles problem...played in just 1 of those 3 games and that was against the Jets (12/7).

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Full name—Frank Michael Reich...was Maryland's starter as a senior, although he was slowed part of that season with a shoulder injury which sidelined him for 4 games...his first appearance back after the injury was a memorable one...entering the Miami game with the Terrapins trailing 31-0, he engineered 1 of the greatest comebacks in college football history...led the Terps on scoring drives on 6 consecutive possessions in the 2nd half on their way to a 42-40 victory...hit on 12 of 15 passes for 260 yds. and 3 TD's in that span...completed 63.9 percent of his throws in his senior year which ranked him among the nation's leaders...backed up Boomer Esiason in 1983 and made his first start that year when Boomer was out with an injury...led Maryland to a 13-7 upset of Pitt and came back late that year to complete 14 of 22 passes for 192 yds. in the 30-23 loss to Tennessee in the Florida Citrus Bowl...in his last game for Maryland, he completed 17 of 28 passes for 201 yards and a TD in a 28-27 Sun Bowl win over Tennessee...threw for 2,097 yards at Maryland and completed 62.9 percent of his passes...played in the Hula and Senior Bowls...graduated with a degree in business in the summer of '84, but played the following year as a graduate student...honored as a student-athlete by the ACC...attended Cedar Crest High in Lebanon, PA...a former roommate and close friend of Boomer Esiason...his father, Frank, played at Penn St. and is a former Nittany Lion captain...enjoys playing golf in his free time...is a part-owner with Esiason of Jim and Chuck's Boot Shop in Buffalo...he and wife, Linda, have two daughters, Lia Milan (1/26/90) and Aviry Lynn (3/20/92).

PRO: The quiet leader of the Bills who has played in more games than any other active member on the Buffalo roster...has been a starter at LG since 1983...The 16th player taken in the 1980 draft when the Bills selected him in the first round...was named AP HM All-Pro following the 1986 and '88 seasons...anchors one of the league's best OL's left sides with C Kent Hull and LT Will Wolford...the 1992 season will mark his 13th consecutive season and break the team record for consecutive seasons played (QB Joe Ferguson [1973-84] and DB Steve Freeman [1975-86] had 12)...also enters the '92 campaign in second place on the Bills all-time games played list (which includes playoffs) with 187, needing just 11 games to break Joe Devlin's club mark of 197.

1991: Capped off an outstanding season with his first trip to the Pro Bowl... was an All-Pro second team selection by AP, College and Pro Football Weekly and Newspaper Enterprise Association...played in his 12th consecutive season with Buffalo, which tied the all-time mark for straight seasons played...also started his 169th career game as a Bill to move him into third place on the all-time games played (Miami, 9/1)...then moved into second place on the list with his 182nd game played at the Raiders (12/8)...finished the regular season with 184 career games played and did his usual excellent job as the starting LG.

1990: Came back strong from shoulder surgery in training camp to have an outstanding season that included being named to UPI's All-AFC 2nd Team...started every game at LG for the Bills OL which gave up the fewest sacks in a non-strike season of any Buffalo front 5 since the group in 1981 that allowed just 16 sacks...helped open the huge holes that enabled Thurman Thomas to rush for 214 yards at the Jets (9/24), which ranks as the second best rushing performance in Monday night history.

1989: Once again started all 16 regular season games and the playoff game at Cleveland at LG...was labeled the most consistent player on the Bills OL.

1988: Had another solid performance for the Bills at LG, starting at that position for all 16 regular season games and the 2 playoff games.

1987: Started all 12 games at LG in the strike-shortened season.

1986: Teamed up with C Kent Hull and RG Will Wolford to start all 16 games and anchor the middle of the Bills OL.

1985: Slowed part of the year with a left ankle injury which he suffered against Philadelphia (10/27)...re-injured the ankle against Houston 2 weeks later and sat out the entire second half of the Bills' win...the same ankle had troubled him in the late stages of the 1984 campaign.

1984: Started 14 games...injured his left ankle against New England (11/11) and missed his next 2 starts against Dallas and Washington...however, the ankle bothered him much of the remainder of the year.

1983: Was a full-time starter for the 1st time in his career...won a training camp battle with Tom Lynch for the starting LG spot and finished as a starter in all 16 games.

1982: Played in all 9 games in the strike-shortened season primarily as a special teams performer.

1981: Played in 14 games and made 3 starts...was ticketed to play center when training camp opened, but suffered a knee injury on the opening day of training camp which checked his progress...did make 3 starts during the year at RG in late November when he took over for Conrad Dobler against St. Louis, New England and Washington.

1980: Played in 14 games, primarily with the special teams and finished the year as a backup center.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Full name—James Alexander Richter...one of the most honored college players in the country following his career at North Carolina State University...was the 1979 Outland Trophy winner as the nation's top lineman...a 2-time consensus All-American, he was only the 2nd offensive lineman to win the Outland Trophy since 1969...was runner up as the ACC Player-of-the-Year to Wake Forest's Jay Venuto...twice an All-ACC pick and the PRO: Became a starter at LDE in 1990...started for Bruce Smith in the opening weeks of the '88 season...the Bills traded their 5th and 6th choices in 1987 to Washington in exchange for the Redskins' pick in the 4th round and selected the talented DE.

1991: Answered the call to start at LDE in the season opener vs. Miami (9/1) after sitting out following the Detroit preseason game (9/10) when he hurt his knee...was the Bills' only defensive lineman to start every game...moved to RDE vs. Cincinnati (10/21) when Phil Hansen left the game with an injured ankle...blocked a Charlie Baumann 32-yard FG attempt at New England (11/24).

1990: Finished sixth in team tackles with 92 in his first year as a starter and tied for 3rd in sacks with 4...made his first career INT against the Colts (12/9)...came up with a big day against the Jets (10/21) when he made 10 TTs and 1 sack...also played a great game against the Giants (12/15) when he recorded 8 TTs and 1 sack...sprained his left knee in the season finale at Washington (12/30) which hampered him through the playoffs.

1989: Playing time increased as he shared half of the duties with Art Still...came in on passing situations and finished 4th in team sacks with 4 behind 3 defensive starters...sack against Colts QB Tom Ramsey (11/12) marked 100th career tackle.

1988: Made impressive strides in 1988...played in all 16 games and started 5...started for Bruce Smith at RDE in the first 4 games and then started for Art Still at LDE in the final game...finished the final game (Colts) with a career-high 10 tackles...tied for the club lead in FRs with 3, including 1 vs. Green Bay that he picked up and ran 7 yds. for a TD.

SEALS, continued

1987: Had a fine rookie season, appearing in 13 games as a reserve DE and pass rushing specialist...did make 1 start when he played in the replacement game against the Giants...finished 11th in tackles with 31 which were the most by a non-starting lineman...chipped in 3.5 sacks.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Full name—Leon Seals, Jr....nickname is "Dr. Sack"... rated as 1 of the top pass rushers by pro scouts in his final 2 seasons at Jackson State University...twice named All-SWAC...finished his career with 31 sacks, including 14 and 10 in his final 2 years...also had 264 career tackles and 8 FR's...was the Defensive MVP in the Freedom Bowl and also played in the Senior Bowl...had 14 tackles, 3 sacks and 1 FR in the Freedom Bowl...2nd leading tackler for the Tigers in his final 2 seasons and helped JSU earn a berth in the NCAA Div. I-AA playoffs as a senior...did not play as a freshman while concentrating on studies...broke into the starting lineup as a sophomore...his college coach called him the best defender to ever suit up for JSU and that list includes such greats as Coy Bacon, Verlon Biggs, Ben McGee and Robert Brazile...dubbed "Dr. Sack" at JSU after leading the SWAC in sacks his final 2 years...studied criminal justice...played at Scotlandville High in Baton Rouge, LA...was an all-state pick...Leon and his wife, Juanita, have 1 son, Jordan (10/19/90).

PRO: Regarded as one of the premier defensive players in the NFL according to his peers...is one of the most feared pass rushers in the league...has made the Pro Bowl trip the past 4 seasons and was the game's MVP in 1987...was 1 sack shy of the AFC leader in 1989 and '90 and just 1/2 sack shy the previous 3 seasons...is the Bills' all-time sack leader...was the first player chosen in the 1985 draft.

1991: In the most frustrating season of his career, the perennial All-Pro appeared in only 5 regular season games...was sidelined after the first week of training camp when he had his knee scoped...had hoped to return to action in Week 3, but did not make it back until the Chicago game (9/29-Week 5)...was inactive the following week at Kansas City and was then placed on IR 10/12...activated from IR on 11/30 and appeared in only his second game vs. the Jets (12/1)...upped his career sack total to 78 with one at the Raiders (12/8)...played in all 3 playoff games at less than 100 percent, but was still effective.

1990: Was the most dominant defensive player in the NFL, according to most experts, with honors and statistics to prove it...was selected to his fourth Pro Bowl, making him just 1 shy of having the distinction of the Bills player with the most Pro Bowls attended (S-G Joe DeLamielleure, RB O.J. Simpson and NT Fred Smerlas)...was named Defensive Player of the Year by AP, UPI, Football News, Pro Football Weekly, 101 Club...was also named to All-Pro teams by AP, PFWA, Pro Football Weekly, The Sporting News, NEA, College and Pro Football Weekly, Football Digest and Sports Illustrated's Dr. Z...was also named to All-AFC teams by Football News, and UPI...in addition, was named Touchdown Magazine's Player of the Year, NFL Alumni's Defensive Lineman of the Year and was the AFC Player of the Month (December)...was second in the NFL in sacks with 19, just 1 behind K.C.'s Derrick Thomas' 20...his 19 sacks set a new club single season record, breaking his own mark of 15 in 1986...equalled LB Cornelius Bennett's feat of being named AFC Defensive Player-of-the-Week twice in consecutive games against Indianapolis (12/9) and the Giants (12/15)...was second on the Bills' tackle list with 101 TTs...completely dominated some games, such as the Colts contest when he sacked QB Jeff George 4 times...came up with one of the biggest plays of Super Bowl XXV when he sacked Giants QB Jeff Hostetler in the end zone for a safety in the second quarter that gave the Bills a 12-3 lead.

1989: Became the Bills all-time leader in sacks when he surpassed Ben Williams' 51 and finished the '89 campaign with 57.5 career sacks...broke Williams' record in the Jets game (10/22) when he made 3 sacks...was selected as a starter in the Pro Bowl for the 3rd consecutive year...was voted to the Pro Football Weekly and UPI All-AFC squads and AP All-Pro Second Team...finished 4th in team tackles with 88...recorded 7 solos and 1/2 sack in the playoff game at Cleveland.

1988: Had a fantastic season that included being selected to the following post-season honors: Pro Bowl; first team units on AP All-Pro, PFWA All-Pro, UPI All-AFC, The Sporting News All-Pro, College and Pro Football Weekly All-Pro, Pro Football Weekly All-Pro, Pro Football Weekly All-AFC, Sports Illustrated All-Pro, Football News All-AFC and World Almanac All-Pro teams; UPI AFC Co-Defensive Player-of-the-Year; Bills Monday Quarterback Club Defensive MVP...tied for the second most sacks in the AFC with Lee Williams of San Diego at 11 (only 1/2 behind leader Greg Townsend of the Raiders), though he played in only 12 games...missed the first 4 games of the season when he was suspended by the NFL under its substance abuse program...was 9th on the team in tackles with 56, but first in sacks with 11...still managed to record 2 QB sacks against Cincinnati in the AFC title game, though he missed some of the game with an injury.

1987: Had an outstanding season which ended with a trip to the Pro Bowl where he won the Dan McGuire Award as the game MVP...named 1st team All-Pro by PFWA, The Sporting News, AP and Sports Illustrated...also won the Miller Lite/NFL Defensive Lineman-of-the-Year and was the UPI Defensive Player-of-the-Year...landed 1st team berths on the UPI, PFWA and Football News All-AFC teams and was the NFLPA AFC Defensive Lineman-of-the-Year...led all Bills' defensive linemen with 78 tackles, which ranked 4th on the squad...his dozen sacks were the most by a defensive lineman in the AFC...also registered 17 QB pressures...won AFC Defensive Player-of-the-Week honors for his 6 tackle, 3 sack effort vs. the Colts (12/13) in which 1 sack came late in the game when he dropped Sean Salisbury in the end zone, causing a fumble which he recovered for his 1st ever TD...partially blocked a FG vs. the Raiders (12/6)...started the season off with 13 tackles vs. the Jets for his career high...ran his streak of games with at least 1 sack to 9 during the year (going back to '86) before it ended against the Redskins (11/1).

1986: Named second team All-AFC by UPI and HM All-Pro by AP...just missed leading the AFC in sacks when he set a new Bills' record of 15...ironically, tied again with San Diego's Lee Williams for second most in conference, just 1/2 behind a Raider, Sean Jones, as in '88...his 63 tackles was 7th on the club...just missed a trip to the Pro Bowl and was an alternate...had at least 1 sack in all but 3 games...also missed nearly 3 quarters of the Tampa Bay contest (11/2) with a bruised knee that kept him from starting the next week vs. Pittsburgh.

1985: Was voted the AFC Defensive Rookie-of-the-Year in balloting done by the NFLPA...was also named to the Football Digest All-Rookie team...led the Bills in sacks as a rookie with 6.5 and started 13 of 16 games...led the team in QB pressures with 25 and FR with 4...used some on short-yardage situations as a FB...carried the ball for no yards vs. the Jets (12/8)...his crushing block wiped out 2 San Diego LB's to clear the path for Joe Cribbs 1-yard TD run (12/1).

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Full name—Bruce Bernard Smith...the 1985 Outland Trophy winner and a consensus 1st team All-America choice as a senior at Virginia Tech...came out of college as the #1 prospect in the country...registered 46 career sacks for the Hokies and had 25 other tackles behind the LOS...4-year tackle total was 180...twice chosen as Tech's MVP and twice selected as the top collegian in the state of Virginia...helped Tech earn a berth to the Independence Bowl...was also named to the All-South Independent team 3 years in a row...a high school All-American in football at Booker T. opener, but started that first game and tied for the second most tackles of the day...scored the last of 3 first quarter TDs in Buffalo's 51-3 route of the Raiders in the AFC title game when he returned an INT 27 yards.

1989: Tied for second in team tackles with Ray Bentley at 97, just 2 behind leader Leonard Smith's 99...finished second in team sacks with 6...was the only Buffalo LB to start every game...blocked Tony Zendejas' FG attempt (which Mark Kelso picked up and ran in for a TD) at end of first half of Houston game...also blocked a FG against the Jets (12/23) to give him the distinction of being the only Bills' player to block a kick (2) in 1989...recorded 5 tackles and 1 sack in Cleveland playoff game.

1988: Finished as the team's 6th leading tackler with 73...did not start against Miami in Week 2 after suffering an ankle injury in the opener...missed almost the entire Cincinnati game during the regular season when he suffered a bruised right thigh in first series...led the Bills in tackles in both playoff games.

1987: Was third on the team in tackles with 79...made the move to ROLB from LOLB in training camp...hampered by an elbow injury part of the year which he suffered against the Dolphins (10/25)...also suffered a broken finger vs. the Raiders (12/6).

1986: Was Buffalo's second leading tackler with 116 stops...worked both sides at OLB...started the first 7 games on the right before moving to the left for the final 9 games after Lucius Sanford returned to the starting lineup following an injury...led the club with 16 QB pressures.

1985: Was the regular LOLB in the first 5 games before being replaced by Guy Frazier for the final 11 games...slowed for the final 2 games of the season with an injury to his right knee...hurt the knee against Pittsburgh (12/15) and was sub-par physically the final week against Miami...postseason surgery corrected the problem.

1984: Was a starter for the first time in his career...started all 16 games at LOLB and finished 6th in tackles with 84 and led the team with 5 sacks.

1983: Had a fine rookie season as a reserve OLB and special teams performer...had 5 sacks...backed up Ervin Parker on the left side...his biggest sack of the season came at Miami (10/9) when he dropped Dan Marino for a 13-yard loss in Bills' 38-35 OT win.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Full name—Darryl Victor Talley...ranked as one of the top defensive players ever at West Virginia...a consensus All-American as a senior when he led the Mountaineers to a Gator Bowl berth...a 4-year starter who ran up 484 tackles, 19 sacks, 5 FR's and 5 INT's...had an outstanding game against Pitt as a senior which included an INT of a Dan Marino pass which helped set up a FG and blocked a punt which he fell on for a TD...was Sports Illustrated's Defensive Player-of-the-Week following WVU's win over Boston College when he had 15 tackles...played in the Hula Bowl and Peach Bowl...has a degree in physical education...attended Sha High School in East Cleveland...Darryl and his wife, Jeanine, have a daughter, Alexandria.

PRO: Is the class of the special teams corps in the NFL, having been selected by his peers and coaches to represent the AFC as the special teams player in the 1988, '91 and '92 Pro Bowls...also works as a reserve WR and can be called upon as a kick returner...has caught 4 passes in his Buffalo career and 3 have been for TDs...the Bills claimed him on waivers from Houston in Nov. '86 after he played with the Oilers in parts of 1985 and 1986...was the 226th player selected when the Oilers selected him in the 9th round in 1985.

1991: Was selected for a return trip, his third, to the Pro Bowl following another outstanding season of special teams play...was selected to Pro Football Weekly's All-NFL and All-AFC squads, College and Pro Football Weekly's All-Pro second team and Ford's All-Madden team...led the Bills in special teams tackles with 26...displayed his athletic ability by running down Pittsburgh KR Rod Woodson from behind on a KO...recorded his first Buffalo regular season reception that did not go for a TD at Tampa Bay (9/22) on a 19-yard Jim Kelly toss...made a spectacular over-the-shoulder catch of a Chris Mohr punt at Kansas City's 3-yard line (10/7)...blocked New England's Shawn McCarthy's punt attempt (11/24) to record his sixth career blocked punt...came from mid-field to make the key block on a Raider closing in on Al Edwards during his TD KO return.

1990: Displayed one of the finest all-around special teams performances in Bills history in 1990 and was awarded for his efforts with his second trip to the Pro Bowl...finished fourth in Buffalo special teams tackles with 25 and posted some impressive stats that included 2 blocked punts, 2 FFs inside the 20-yard line, 2 FRs and 2 UTs inside the 10-yard line on KOs...the first blocked punt was picked up by James Williams, who raced 38 yards for the TD that sparked the Bills to a 38-24 comeback victory over the Raiders...after 5 years finally made his first reception as a Bill and turned it into a 24-yard TD from Kelly against Phoenix (11/11)...made his second catch vs. Washington (12/30), another TD, on a 20-yard pass from QB Gale Gilbert.

1989: Finished third in Bills' special teams tackles with 27, but led the team in special teams solo tackles with 11...made 1 solo tackle on special teams in playoff game at Cleveland.

1988: Missed the Cincinnati and Tampa Bay games with a right knee injury suffered against the Jets and underwent surgery at the end of the season...finished 3rd in Bills' special teams tackles with 17...blocked a punt against Pitt. which Robb Riddick picked up and returned 5 yards for a TD.

1987: Made 20 tackles on special teams which ranked 2nd behind John Kaiser (23) and led all players on those units with 3 FFs...blocked a punt for a safety vs. Denver (11/8) and partially blocked 3 others...1 of his FFs came in the OT win over Miami when he forced a Scott Schwedes' fumble in the final period which helped set up a TD to knot the score at 24-24...was voted the top special teams player in the AFC by the NFLPA and Pro Football Weekly bestowed the same honor.

1986: Played 2 games with Houston early in the year before suffering a left knee injury which put him on IR for 7 weeks...after being placed on waivers, he was claimed by the Bills and played the final 7 games...was 3rd in special teams tackles with 8...had a blocked punt against the Patriots (11/23) which helped set up a FG just before the half.

1985: Played in 7 games with Houston...a right knee injury kept him out of the other 9 games...his 26.3 KO avg. would have led the AFC but he did not have enough attempts to qualify for conference lead.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Full name—Steven Jay Tasker...was strictly a return specialist at Northwestern where he won 3 letters...transferred from Dodge City C.C. in Kansas after 1 year...still leads all Northwestern players for career KO avg. with a 24.3 mark...his 17.9 avg. for total kick returns also is a NU record...had 28 punt returns for a 10.8 avg...attended Wichita County HS in Leoti, KS...won 4 gold medals in the state track meet during his career, specializing in the 100, 200 and long jump...has a degree in communication studies from Northwestern and would like to be a sportscaster in the future...served an internship with WBKW-TV in Buffalo during the offseasons...was the Bills' nominee for the 1989 Ed Block Courage Award...served as an instructor for the highly acclaimed Women Understanding Football class in the Buffalo area...was the Bills' 1992 spokesman for the United Way commercial spot that ran nationally...Steve and his wife, Sarah, have 3 children; Deacon (9/16/87), Annelise Christine (5/6/89) and Lucas (1/18/91).

PRO: Climbed to the pinnacle of his profession in 1991 by being selected as the NFL's Most Valuable Player...has made his name synonymous with the phrase "the world's best all-purpose running back" by leading the league in total yards from scrimmage in 1991 with 2,038 yards, 1990 with 1,829 and in 1989 with 1,913...earned 3 trips to the Pro Bowl (1989, '90 and '91)...was the 40th player selected in the 1988 draft when the Bills chose him in the second round.

1991: Recorded a spectacular season that included being named the league's MVP and numerous other accolades (see Thomas' 1991 Awards towards end of bio)...led the NFL in combined yards from scrimmage for the third consecutive season (2,038), tying the feat of the legendary Jim Brown...had his best season rushing with 1,407 yards...became only the 11th player in NFL history to gain over 2,000 combined yards from scrimmage in a season...his 2,038 ranks as the 12th highest single-season total in NFL history...finished third among NFL rushing leaders behind Emmitt Smith (Dallas) and Barry Sanders (Detroit), but played only 1 quarter in the final 2 games...in the season opener vs. Miami (9/1) he became the first RB in Bills' history to record 100 yards rushing and receiving in the same game...became Buffalo's all-time leading receiver for RBs, surpassing Joe Cribbs (180), vs. the Jets (12/1) with 4 catches...also broke his own team record for most receptions by a RB in a season (1989-90) with 62...tied the Bills' record for most receptions in a game (13) at the Jets (9/15), including a 15-yard game winner...moved ahead of Joe Cribbs into second place on Buffalo's all-time rushing list at Miami (11/18)...became only the 21st player in NFL history to rush for over 1,000 yards in 3 consecutive seasons...was named the AFC Offensive Player of the Month for September and November, as well as the AFC Offensive Player of the Week for Weeks 1 and 3.

1990: Posted a stellar season in which he led the NFL in total yards from scrimmage with 1,829 and topped the AFC in rushing with 1,297...was selected to such honors as All-Pro first teams by AP, College and Pro Football Weekly and Football Digest, All-Pro Teams by PFWA, Pro Football Weekly, The Sporting News, NEA and SI's Dr. Z, and All-AFC Teams by UPI and Football News...moved from 8th to 3rd on the Bills' all-time rushing list with 3,422 yards...his 1,297 yards was the most since O.J. Simpson's 1,503 in 1976 and was the fourth best in Bills' history...became only the fifth Bills' player to rush for 200 yards in a single game with 214 at the Jets in Week 3, which was also the NFL's most in 1990...his 80-yard TD run vs. New England (11/18) was a career long and enters the Bills record book as tied for the fourth longest...rose to the occasion in the Miami game (12/23) with 154 yards rushing to offset the injured Jim Kelly...scored a career high 3 TDs at Cleveland (11/4)...passed Joe Cribbs as Buffalo's all-time leading rusher in postseason play (498 yards) with 3 consecutive 100-yard performances...the 138 yards vs. the Raiders and 135 yards in Super Bowl XXV are the top 2 performances in Bills playoff history...31-yard TD run in the Silver Anniversary Super Bowl is also a Bills postseason best.

1989: In addition to being selected to the Pro Bowl, was also voted to UPI All-AFC squad, Pro Football Weekly's All-AFC team, AP Second Team, College and Pro Football Newsweekly All-Pro Second Team and SI's '89 Z Team...tied for the AFC TD lead with Kansas City's Christian Okoye with 12 and non-kicker scoring lead with 72 pts...finished 3rd in the AFC (6th in the NFL) in rushing with 1,244 yards behind Okoye (1,480) and Indianapolis' Eric Dickerson (1,311)...set a new team record for most receptions by a RB in a season with 60 catches, breaking Joe Cribbs' mark of 58...made 13 receptions in playoff game at Cleveland, tying an NFL record for most catches in a playoff game with San Diego's TE Kellen Winslow.

1988: Had an impressive rookie season, leading the Bills in rushing with 881 yards on 207 carries...was the third leading rookie rusher in the NFL...missed more than 3 quarters vs. Seattle with a bruised shin...sat out next game against Miami with a sore leg.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Full name—Thurman Lee Thomas...1 of the premier RB's in the country during his college career at Oklahoma State...ran the ball 897 times during his career for 4,595 yards and 43 TD's...the yardage total is 2nd best in Big Eight history to Mike Rozier's 4,780 at Nebraska...no doubt would have been the conference's top rusher if he had not been slowed down much of his junior year with a bad left knee which he injured in a pick-up basketball game in the summer before his junior year...underwent arthroscopic surgery after the injury...had a big sophomore year when he gained 1,650 yards on 327 carries...holds the OSU record with 293 yards rushing in a game which he set in 1987 in the season finale against Iowa State...a 1st team AP All-American and a 2nd team choice by UPI...won 1st team Big Eight honors on the AP and UPI teams 3 years in succession...finished 7th in the Heisman Trophy balloting and then capped his senior season by running for 157 yards vs. West Virginia in the Sun Bowl and setting a record with 4 TD's...counting 2 other bowl games (Gator) he gained 5,004 yards and scored 48 TD's...had 155 yards in the Gator Bowl as a freshman vs. South Carolina and was game MVP...was a 2nd team All-America pick as a sophomore by Football News and the The Sporting News and 3rd team by AP...tossed a 12-yard scoring pass on a flea-flicker in the Gator Bowl against Florida State...had 21 100-yard games in his career...played in front of Heisman Trophy winner Barry Sanders...a prep star at Willowridge HS in Missouri City, TX...was chosen all-state and the Player-of-the-Year by the Houston Touchdown Club...was inducted into the Texas High School Hall of Fame during the 1992 offseason...hotel and restaurant major.

PRO: Shows all of the indications of a future All-Pro CB with athletic skills second to none...also makes big special teams plays...was the 16th player selected in the 1990 draft.

1991: Drew the starting nod at LCB in Week 2 and appeared to have unseated Kirby Jackson as the starter...also started the next 2 games (at the Jets and at Tampa Bay), making a key INT at the Jets with the ball on the Bills' 13-yard line and only 6 seconds remaining in the half...suffered a right knee injury at Tampa on the first play from scrimmage...the damage to the knee did not require surgery, but he was placed on IR (9/24) for the next 7 weeks (Weeks 5-11)...was activated 11/23 ...in his first game back, at New England (11/24), he blocked a Charlie Baumann 51-yard FG attempt for his first career FG block...injured knee was still not 100 percent so he was used sparingly and was even inactive for the Jets game (12/1)...did not start, but played in all 3 playoff games.

1990: Was selected to the All-Rookie teams by UPI and the Football News...led the team in PDs with 18...made his presence felt immediately when he blocked a Rohn Stark punt vs. the Colts in the season opener...scored his first NFL TD when he picked up Steve Tasker's blocked punt vs. the Raiders (10/7) and raced 38 yards to give the Bills a turnaround lead late in the game...made his first NFL start vs. New England (11/18) and turned in one of the biggest plays of his rookie season when he preserved a slim Bills lead by intercepting a Marc Wilson pass in the end zone with under 2 minutes to play...recorded his first INT off Steve Grogan at New England (10/28)...made a team high 3 PDs vs. Miami in the playoffs.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Full name—James Earl Williams...made 89 TTs with 3 INTs, 13 PDs, 3 FFs, 1 FR and 11 blocked kicks in his Fresno State career from 1986-89...also played in 2 California Bowls...began his college career as a WR...timed at 4.29 in the 40 while at FSU...earned All-Big West Conference first team 2 years in a row...set a modern day NCAA Division I-A season record by blocking six punts in his senior year, breaking the old mark of 5 blocked by Sheldon White of Miami (OH) in 1986...TRACK: 1986—Exploded for a career best 52'11" triple jump (third best in FSU history) to win the Pacific Coast Athletic Association title...led the FSU track team to the PCAA crown in the 400-meter relays as the unit set a then-school record time of 40.18 seconds...placed 15th in the NCAA finals in the triple jump...earned 4 letters in football and track and 2 in basketball at Coalinga (CA) HS...placed 2nd in the California state meet in the triple jump (51'4 1/2") in his senior year...physical education major...He and his wife, Karen, have one daughter, Nicole Alexa (8/24/90).

PRO: One of the best LTs in the AFC today who plays both the run and pass extremely well...an excellent athlete with a vertical jump of 32.5" who also benches over 500 pounds...capable of playing either tackle or guard as he did in his first couple of seasons...one of 2 first-round picks by the Bills in 1986...Buffalo obtained the pick used to select him in a trade with San Francisco in exchange for second and third round choices in the '86 draft.

1991: Capped off another outstanding season by being named to the Football News AFC All-Pro team and the Ford All-Madden team...was presented a game ball for his play against Chicago's Richard Dent...left the Green Bay game (11/10) in the third quarter with a lower back injury...dressed for the Miami game (11/18) but did not play because of the back problem...returned to the starting line up at New England (11/24) and played very well the rest of the regular season and throughout the playoffs.

1990: Achieved some recognition for his ability when he was named to his first Pro Bowl to replace an injured Anthony Munoz of Cincinnati...was also named to the All-AFC team by the Football News...anchored the all important LT position that enabled the Bills offensive line to allow only 27 sacks, the fewest in a non-strike season since the 1981 crew gave up just 16...pulled a hamstring late in the preseason and the nagging injury forced him to miss Weeks 1 and 4...was involved in one of Buffalo's "dark" plays of the season against the Giants (12/15) when he suffered a right knee injury and landed on Jim Kelly, injuring the QB's left knee...both players missed the second half, though Wolford made an attempt to return in one series in the 2nd half before starting the following week vs. Miami...played exceptionally well in all 3 playoff games.

1989: Anchored one of the best left sides of any OL in the league with C Kent Hull and LG Jim Ritcher...epitomized his dedication and will to win when he made a TD-saving tackle on a FR by Miami's DB Rodney Thomas by running him down from behind (9/10)...started at LT in playoff game at Cleveland.

1988: Worked at LT until Tim Vogler was injured in the season opener and then moved back to to RG for 4 games with Leonard Burton taking over his LT slot...moved back to LT against the Colts when Vogler returned...suffered a slight knee injury in the Patriots win which kept him out for a brief period in the game.

1987: Made the move from RG to LT early in training camp and ended up starting 9 games...suffered a sprained left ankle against Washington (11/1) which sidelined him for nearly 3 quarters and kept him out of subsequent starts against Denver and Cleveland...returned to the starting lineup against the Jets and Miami before suffering a broken right thumb vs. the Raiders (12/6) which forced him out in the first half...the injury forced him to miss the win over the Colts (12/13)...started the next game against the Patriots before being replaced by Burton early in the game while still troubled by his injury...played the entire finale at Philadelphia.

1986: Did not sign until early August and moved into the starting lineup in the 3rd preseason game against K.C. and remained there throughout the season...was the first rookie offensive lineman to start every game for the Bills since Joe DeLamielleure did so in 1973...troubled briefly during the year with a rotator problem which he suffered against Miami (10/12)...won All-Rookie mention by PFWA, UPI and Pro Football Weekly.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Full name—William Charles Wolford...ranked as 1 of the top linemen in the Southeastern Conference during his career at Vanderbilt...started from 1983-85...won All-SEC honors as a senior and was also a 3rd team All-America choice by AP...performed in both Blue-Gray and Senior Bowl games...won 2nd team freshman All-America honors in '82...played in the Hall of Fame Bowl that year...prepped at St. Xavier HS in Louisville, KY...won 11 letters and was an all-state choice and also all-district in basketball...wife's name—Jude.

PRO: Stepped to the forefront in 1990 as the Bills starting NT after serving as a backup to Fred Smerlas for 2 seasons...has unusual quickness for a NT...forte is putting pressure on the QB...was Buffalo's second choice in the 8th round in 1988...the Bills obtained the choice in a 1987 trade with the Colts involving tackle Roger Caron.

1991: Recorded his third career sack of Miami QB Dan Marino (9/1) but injured his knee in the game and was placed on IR 9/2...was activated off IR 11/2 and made his next start at New England (11/3), where recorded his 15th career sack...a sack the following week at Green Bay gave him 3 sacks in his first 3 games...blocked a PAT vs. New England (11/24)...upped his career sack total to 19 at the Raiders (12/8)...played a memorable championship game vs. Denver when he made one of the biggest plays for Buffalo all season, a batted John Elway screen pass, which LB Carlton Bailey snared and returned for the game's only TD...also sacked Elway in the game.

1990: Made an impressive step forward in his first season as a starter, finishing second in sacks with 5...his 76 TTs and 5 sacks in 1990 were better than the combination of Smerlas and Wright in '89, which posted 49 TTs and 4 sacks...turned in one of the best performances of any Buffalo defender in SB XXV by recording a career high 11 TTs...one of those 11 TTs was RB Ottis Anderson for a 4-yard loss on a first down run from the Buffalo 3-yard line which eventually forced the Giants to kick the game-winning FG instead of scoring a TD.

1989: Shared time with starter Fred Smerlas and played in most passing situations...climbed into the national spotlight when he sacked Miami QB Dan Marino for the first time in nearly 400 attempts (10/29)...recorded his first career INT at New England (11/19)...suffered a knee injury in the 3rd quarter of the season opener at Miami (9/10) and was inactive the next week against Denver.

1988: Played in all 16 games as a backup to Fred Smerlas and recorded 5 sacks, 4th on the team...1 of 3 defensive rookies to make the team in '88...played all but 1 play, the opening one, in season finale against the Colts.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Full name—Jeff Dee Wright...had an outstanding career at Central Missouri State...named to Kodak's 1st team College Division All-America team and was also chosen 2nd team on AP's Little All-America team...was the starting NG in both 1986 and '87 for the Mules, who did not lose a game in the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association either season...had 119 tackles in '87 and was named the MIAA Defensive Player-of-the-Year...also added 7.5 sacks which also led his club...was also called upon as a RB in short yardage situations and had 2 carries for 5 yards and 2 TD's...All-MIAA as a junior and senior...chosen as the school's top male athlete for 1987-88...enrolled at CMSU after 1 year at Coffeyville (KS) Junior College...originally enrolled at Tulsa after a fine prep career at Lawrence (KS) HS...starred in both football and track and was a state champion in the shot put...physical education major...he and wife, Kim, have 1 daughter, Taylor (1/17/90), and 1 son, Jeffery Logan (6/7/91).

WEEK 1

BILLS 35, Miami Dolphins 31
 September 1, 1991 – Rich Stadium – (80,252)

Led by RB Thurman Thomas, the Bills put together a record setting come-from-behind win over the Dolphins. Miami opened a 14-0 lead on a 43-yard flea-flicker from RB Mark Higgs to QB Dan Marino and finally in the hands of WR Mark Clayton, followed by a 3-yard scamper by Higgs. Buffalo put its first points on the board as QB Jim Kelly hit WR Andre Reed with a 54-yard TD pass. Trailing 17-7 in the third quarter, Buffalo took its first lead of the game by capturing the next two scores. QB Frank Reich, spelling an injured Kelly, hit TE Butch Rolle with a 3-yard TD pass, marking Rolle's ninth straight regular season reception for a TD. Kelly then returned to the game and found a wide-open Thurman Thomas, who sprinted 50 yards for the TD. Miami answered with a 5-yard Marino-to-Clayton TD strike to re-take the lead 24-21. Buffalo then put the game on ice with a pair of rushing TDs, a 1-yard over the top run by FB Carwell Gardner and a 7-yarder to by Thomas. In the game, Thomas became the first Buffalo player to record a 100-yard rushing and receiving performance in the same game.

WEEK 2

BILLS 52, Pittsburgh Steelers 34
 September 8, 1991 – Rich Stadium – (79,545)

The Buffalo offense racked up 537 total net yards and the second highest point total in Bills' history, with a 52-34 win over the Steelers. Buffalo jumped out to a quick 10-0 lead behind a 53-yard strike from QB Jim Kelly to WR James Lofton and a 50-yard field goal for K Scott Norwood. After a 25-yard FG by Pittsburgh K Gary Anderson, Buffalo pushed the score to 24-3 on two TD receptions by WR Don Beebe. Pittsburgh pulled it to 24-10 at the half on a hard-nosed 56-yard TD run by Steeler RB Barry Foster. Pittsburgh finally narrowed the Buffalo lead to 31-27 in the third quarter when LB Bryan Hinkle intercepted a Kelly pass and took it 57 yards for a TD and Gary Anderson added 27-yard field goal, after a second Kelly interception by CB Rod Woodson. Buffalo put the game to rest in the fourth quarter as the second act of the Kelly-to-Beebe show posted another two touchdowns and CB Nate Odomes returned an INT 32 yards for a score.

WEEK 3

BILLS 23, New York Jets 20

September 15, 1991 – Giants Stadium – (65,309)

In a game reminiscent to last seasons' October 21st Bills-Jets game, when a FB Jamie Mueller TD reception gave Buffalo a 30-27 last second win, QB Jim Kelly connected with RB Thurman Thomas on a 15-yard TD pass for a 23-20 win over the Jets. New York drew first blood as they capped an 8:08 drive with a RB Freeman McNeil 1-yard run early in the second quarter. K Scott Norwood got Buffalo on the scoreboard with a career long 52-yard FG, which New York K Pat Leahy got right back with a 32-yarder on the Jets next possession. With the score 10-10, the Jets had a chance to go ahead but CB James Williams intercepted a QB Ken O'Brien-to-WR Rob Moore pass in the end zone on the second to last play of the first half. Buffalo took their first lead of the game on a 25-yard field goal from Norwood in the third quarter. The Jets regained the lead on their next series with a 5-yard aerial from O'Brien to RB Blair Thomas. The two teams then traded field goals to set the stage for Buffalo's final score. Leahy had a chance to tie the game with 23 seconds left but his 51-yard attempt fell short.

WEEK 4 BILLS 17, Tampa Bay Buccaneers 10 September 22, 1991 - Tampa Stadium - (57,323)

Buffalo survived a 90 degree afternoon and two turnovers to hold off the Tampa Bay Buccaneers for a 17-10 win. On Buffalo's first play from scrimmage LB Keith McCants forced Bills' FB Carwell Gardner to fumble which was recovered by Tampa. The Bills then denied the Bucs a chance to capitalize on the turnover as DE Mark Pike blocked a 39-yard FG attempt by Bucs' K Steve Christie. Buffalo then took a 7-0 advantage on a 1-yard TD run by Gardner and held that edge until the 8:09 mark of the third quarter. RB Reggie Cobb finally drew the Bucs even on a one-yard TD plunge. Buffalo went back on top just before the close of the third quarter with a 33-yard field goal by K Scott Norwood. The Bucs then took over and drove 67 yards to the Buffalo 1 yard line. But on third and goal, Buffalo LB Shane Conlan stuffed Bucs' Cobb which forced Tampa to settle for a field goal. Buffalo put the winning points on the board with a 29-yard TD strike from QB Jim Kelly to TE Keith McKeller. Tampa made a run at tying the game, but with two seconds left QB Chris Chandler, who took over for an injured Vinny Testaverde in the second quarter, left his last pass into the end zone too short.

GAME NOTES

- Buffalo wins its first game in the last six visits to Tampa Stadium. Buffalo dropped its last four games to Tampa and lost Super Bowl XXV (to the NY Giants), all at Tampa Stadium.
- The 90 degree weather tied the mark for the third hottest temp that the Bills have played a game in (Three hottest temps - 100° @Dallas 8/14/82; 97° @San Diego 9/16/79; 90° - twice, @Miami 9/4/83 & @Tampa 9/22/91).

WEEK 5

BILLS 35, Chicago Bears 20 September 29, 1991 - Rich Stadium - (80,366)

Buffalo ran its record to 5-0 for the first time since 1980 with a 35-20 victory over the previously unbeaten Chicago Bears. The Bills fell behind 6-0 on a pair of K Kevin Butler FGs before they finally got on track with a 33-yard aerial from QB Jim Kelly to WR Al Edwards. Buffalo opened the second half scoring on an odd play which found FB Carwell Gardner recovering his own fumble in the end zone to put the Bills up 14-6. The Bills extended their lead to 21-6 when TE Butch Rolle gathered in a 2-yard pass from Kelly. The score marked Rolle's 10th straight reception for a TD. After a tough goal line stand by the Buffalo defense, led by CB Nate Odomes with a pair of key plays, the Bills took control of the ball at their own 1 yard line. The Bears in-turn forced the Bills to punt and took their next possession on a 4 play 35 yard drive, which RB Neal Anderson finished off with a 2-yard TD run. Buffalo got the score right back on its next play from scrimmage as Kelly connected with WR James Lofton on a 77-yard scoring strike to put the Bills up 28-13. RB Thurman Thomas put the game out of reach with a 10-yard TD run mid-way through the fourth.

WEEK 6

BILLS 6, Kansas City Chiefs 33 October 7, 1991 - Arrowhead Stadium - (76,120)

The Kansas City Chiefs turned five Buffalo fumbles into 24 points en route to a 33-6 victory on Monday night football. The Chiefs went up 10-0 on a K Nick Lowery 41-yard field goal and a 1-yard QB Steve DeBerg-to-TE Pete Holohan TD pass. Buffalo drew within four after K Scott Norwood split the uprights from 44 and 25 yards out to set the score at 10-6. Kansas City then took its next possession on a 10-play, 57-yard drive which Lowery capped off with a 40-yard FG on the last play of the first half. With the score 16-6, Buffalo coughed up the ball four times to seal its own fate. RB Christian Okoye cashed in two of the turnovers with TD runs of 5 and 2 yards and Lowery got his fourth field goal to set the final score at 33-6.

WEEK 7

BILLS 42, Indianapolis Colts 6 October 13, 1991 - Rich Stadium - (79,015)

Buffalo set the tone of the game early as DE Phil Hansen met Colts' RB Ken Clark 2-yards deep in the backfield, forcing him to fumble; LB Shane Conlan recovered. On the next play from scrimmage RB Thurman Thomas scampered 14 yard for a TD, marking Buffalo's first score off an opening drive in 1991. Down 14-0, the Colts drove almost the entire length of the field, only to have the Bills' defense stop them 6 times inside Buffalo's 5-yard line. Indianapolis was forced to settle for a 26-yard K Dean Biasucci field goal. After converting a Buffalo turnover into another three points, the Colts watched Thomas get his second rushing TD of the game and saw QB Frank Reich hit TE Keith McKeller with a 5-yard TD pass to put the Bills on top 28-6. Buffalo extended its lead in third quarter when Reich connected with WR James Lofton on an 11-yard TD aerial. RB Kenneth Davis put the game to rest with a career long 78-yard TD run in the final stanza.

- Kenneth Davis' 78-yard TD run in the 4th quarter marked the back's longest rush of his career and the longest run in the NFL for 1991.

WEEK 8

BILLS 35, Cincinnati Bengals 16
 October 21, 1991 – Rich Stadium – (80,131)

In a wild Monday night contest, Buffalo used its long strike capability to down the visiting Cincinnati Bengals, 35-16. The game started on a rough note for the Bills as QB Jim Kelly threw three INTs on their first three possessions. But the Buffalo defense, spearheaded by Cornelius Bennett allowed the Bengals only a 32-yard field goal by K Jim Breech. Kelly then turned the tables just nine seconds into the 2nd quarter and hit a streaking WR James Lofton with a 74-yard scoring strike. Lofton would use this catch as the foundation for a career record 220 yards on 8 receptions. TE Pete Metzelaars then recorded a career long reception as he took a short Kelly pass 51 yards for a 14-3 Bills' lead. The Bengals drew to within four in the 3rd quarter as QB Boomer Esiason connected with WR Eddie Brown on a 19-yard TD pass. Buffalo then answered just 1:17 later with a Kelly-to-Lofton 48-yard TD aerial. Buffalo did not look back and ended the night on a high note as Kelly hit RB Thurman Thomas with a 5-yard TD pass to cap a career single-game high 392-yard outing.

1991 GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 8: CINCINNATI, continued

GAME NOTES

- WR James Lofton set a career single game high in receiving yards with a 220-yard performance (8 rec., 2 TDs). He became only the fourth player in Bills' history to cross the 200-yard mark in a game. The last time that Lofton hit 200-yards was on a Monday night at Denver, 10/15/84. That night Lofton tallied 206-yards for the Packers.
- With an in-house attendance of 80,131, Buffalo set a new club record of three 80,000-plus crowds in same regular season.

WEEK 9

OPEN DATE

WEEK 10

BILLS 22, New England Patriots 17

November 3, 1991 – Rich Stadium – (78,278)

Buffalo fought through a tough wind, a tough Patriot defense and four turnovers before coming out with a 22-17 win over New England. After a field goal-filled first half, the Bills took the second half kickoff on a 77-yard drive which ended with a 13-yard QB Jim Kelly-to-WR Don Beebe TD strike. K Jason Staurovsky answered the Buffalo TD with a 36-yard field goal but CB Nate Odomes was flagged for roughing the kicker. The Patriots took the penalty to give them a first down at the Buffalo 11. Four plays later Staurovsky's second attempt sailed wide right and the Pats went away empty. The Patriots did however cut the score to 13-10, as RB Leonard Russell scored a one-yard TD, but Norwood connected on his third field goal of the day to give Buffalo a 16-10 lead. Buffalo then moved out to a 22-10 lead as RB Thurman Thomas dashed his way in from 15 yards away. The score was set up with LB Shane Conlan recovering a WR Irving Fryar fumble at the New England 24. New England put the pressure on Buffalo late in the fourth quarter with Russell's second score of the day. The two teams traded INTs to close out the game and cap off a hard fought Sunday afternoon.

WEEK 11

BILLS 34, Green Bay Packers 24

November 10, 1991 – Milwaukee County Stadium – (52,175)

After a slow first-quarter start, Buffalo got its road wheels greased to send the host Green Bay Packers to a 34-24 loss. Down 7-0, nothing came easy for the Bills in the early going and their first score was no exception. WR Andre Reed grabbed a deflected pass by RB Thurman Thomas for a 6-yard TD reception. The Packers then took their next possession on a drive which took 7:08 off the clock and was capped by a 25-yard field goal by K Chris Jacke. Buffalo wasted no time in gaining its first lead of the game as Kelly hit WR Don Beebe with a 12-yard TD strike to put Buffalo up 14-10 at the half. Thurman Thomas scored on Buffalo's opening drive of the second half, but the Packers pulled to within four as WR Sterling Sharpe took a QB Mike Tomczak pass 58 yards for the score. Buffalo then put the next 13 points on the scoreboard to lead 34-17. Green Bay tried to mount a rally as Tomczak hit TE Jackie Harris with a 1-yard TD aerial, but the score would come a little to late as Buffalo went on to a 34-24 victory.

WEEK 12

BILLS 41, Miami Dolphins 27

November 18, 1991 – Joe Robbie Stadium – (71,062)

The Buffalo Bills turned five Miami turnovers into 24 points en route to a 41-27 win over the Dolphins. RB Thurman Thomas, with 2 TDs, and LB Cornelius Bennett led the Buffalo charge. With the score 10-10, Bennett made one of the biggest defensive plays of the season recording a sack, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and a return of six yards for a touchdown after knocking the ball out of the hand of QB Dan Marino mid-way through the second quarter. Buffalo led 20-13 after 2 quarters and opened the second half with a big special teams play as DE Mark Pike forced KR Aaron Craver to fumble, which was recovered by FB Carwell Gardner. Buffalo cashed-in the turnover with a five-yard Kelly-to-WR Andre Reed scoring strike. On Miami's next possession LB Darryl Talley intercepted a Marino pass after CB Clifford Hicks tipped a pass intended for WR Fred Banks. Buffalo converted the turnover into a one-yard TD run by Thomas. In the fourth quarter, Buffalo dashed all hopes of a Dolphins' comeback with a 15-play, 89-yard drive which consumed 8:47 off the clock and ended with Reed hauling in his second TD of the game.

WEEK 13

New England Patriots 16, BILLS 13

November 24, 1991 – Foxboro Stadium – (47,053)

The Bills turned the ball over five times and dropped a 16-13 contest to the Patriots. Winning the giveaway/takeaway helped New England overcome two blocked field goals and a blocked punt to pick up its first victory over Buffalo since 1989. After a K Scott Norwood field goal, Buffalo capitalized on Steve Tasker's block of a Shawn McCarthy punt, with RB Thurman Thomas scoring on a 10-yard pass from QB Jim Kelly. New England cut into the Bills lead early in the second quarter as K Charlie Baumann split the uprights from 46 yards out. Then with time running down in the first half, CB Maurice Hurst intercepted Kelly and on the next play from scrimmage QB Hugh Millen hit a streaking WR Irving Fryar for a 50-yard TD strike. NT Jeff Wright blocked the PAT and left the halftime score at 10-9, Buffalo. New England took its first lead of the game early in the fourth quarter as Millen called his own number and took it in from two yards out. Buffalo had one last chance for the tie or win, but on fourth down in New England territory Kelly left a pass to WR James Lofton a bit short to secure the Pats a 16-13 win.

1991 GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 13: NEW ENGLAND, continued

GAME NOTES

- QB Jim Kelly, with a 10-yard TD pass to Thomas, tied Joe Ferguson (1983) for the individual single-season record for TDs with 26 and tied a career single-game record for attempts with 44 (44 att., 9/24/89 vs. Denver)...The 4 INTs thrown by Kelly were the most in a game by Bills' QB.

WEEK 14

BILLS 24, New York Jets 13

December 1, 1991 – Rich Stadium – (80,243)

For the third time in the last four seasons the Buffalo Bills claimed the AFC East title in a game played against the New York Jets. The Jets started early with a big special teams play as WR Chris Burkett forced P Chris Mohr to get ride of the ball to TE Pete Metzelaars to avoid a blocked kick. Four plays later RB Brad Baxter scored on a 3-yard run. Buffalo matched the Jets' big play as QB Jim Kelly hit WR Andre Reed with a 16-yard TD strike just three plays after gaining control of the football off a FS Mark Kelso interception. RB Kenneth Davis opened the second-half scoring as he put to rest an eight-play drive with a 4-yard run to give Buffalo a lead it would not relinquish. The Buffalo defense thwarted New York's best chance to regain the lead as LB Darryl Talley forced WR Rob Moore to fumble at the Buffalo 7-yard line and FS Mark Kelso fell on the ball to secure Buffalo's lead. The Bills then took the ball on a 9-play, 93-yard drive for the insurance score, a 27-yard Kelly-to-WR James Lofton TD aerial.

GAME NOTES

- RB Thurman Thomas became the Bills' all-time pass catcher for a running 180 receptions during his career with Buffalo.
- QB Jim Kelly became only the 52nd QB to have 1,500 completions in a career and set a new individual club record with 28 TD passes on the season. The previous mark for TD passes in a season was 26 set by QB Joe Ferguson in 1983.
- LG Jim Ritcher played in his 181st game as a Bill, tying him with FS Steve Freeman for second on the Bills all-time list of games played in a Bills' uniform.

WEEK 15

BILLS 30, L.A. Raiders 27 (OT)

December 8, 1991 – L.A. Memorial Coliseum – (85,081)

Buffalo K Scott Norwood shook off three missed field goals and an extra point to nail a game-winning 42-yard field goal to give the Bills a 30-27 overtime win over the Raiders. RB Kenneth Davis dove in from one yard out and WR James Lofton hauled in a 9-yard TD pass from QB Jim Kelly, as Buffalo scored 13 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to send the game into overtime. The early going showed no signs of a dramatic finish as the Raiders seemed in total control with a 10-0 lead. But WR/KR Al Edwards returned a kickoff 91 yards for a TD and a 59-yard punt return by CB Cliff Hicks, which resulted in a 9-yard TD catch by TE Keith McKeller, opened the door for Buffalo. Los Angeles put the halftime score at 20-14 as Jaeger split the uprights from 28 yards out on the last play of the first half. The only scoring in the third quarter was a 1-yard TD plunge by RB Marcus Allen, which set the score at 27-14, Raiders. Buffalo's winning FG in overtime was set up by a Mark Kelso INT and a 31-yard reception by WR Andre Reed.

- WR James Lofton becomes the oldest player in NFL history to record 1,000 yards receiving in a season.

WEEK 16

BILLS 35, Indianapolis Colts 7

December 15, 1991 - Hoosier Dome - (48,286)

Buffalo secured the best record in the AFC and home-field advantage by defeating the Colts 35-7. The Buffalo offense came out firing on all cylinders and jumped out to a 21-0 lead. RB Kenneth Davis started the scoring spree with a 1-yard TD run, followed by an 11-yard QB Jim Kelly-to-WR James Lofton TD strike. The Bills then took advantage of a 55-yard punt return by CB/PR Cliff Hicks with Davis' second score on the day, a 14-yard aerial from Kelly. WR Andre Reed then put the Bills up 28-0 in the second quarter with a 23-yard TD strike from Kelly. The Colts finally got on the scoreboard early in the fourth quarter as RB Tim Manoa bullied his way into the end zone from 1-yard out. Buffalo set the final score at 35-7, as QB Frank Reich, in relief duties for Kelly, hit TE Pete Metzelaars with a 4-yard TD pass.

WEEK 17

Detroit Lions 17, BILLS 14 (OT)

December 22, 1991 – Rich Stadium – (78,059)

Detroit K Eddie Murray ended the Buffalo Bills 17-game home win streak by nailing a 21-yard field goal to give the Lions a 17-14 overtime win. The Bills jumped on the board early in the second quarter as WR Andre Reed scored on a 7-yard pass from QB Frank Reich to cap the Bills longest drive of the season (99 yards). Buffalo held that 7-0 advantage until the fourth quarter when RB Barry Sanders scored on a 1-yard TD run. The Lions then took their first lead of the game as CB Sheldon White snared a deflected pass by RB Kenneth Davis and returned the interception 18 yards for a score. Then with close to two minutes left in the game, LB Cornelius Bennett forced Sanders to fumble which LB Darryl Talley recovered. On the next play from scrimmage Reich hit WR Steve Tasker for the game-tying touchdown. The Lions had a chance to win the game in regulation, but Murray's 30 yard attempt was wide left.

The Seattle Seahawks are the only NFL club to have never played a preseason or regular season game at Rich Stadium in the 18 seasons the stadium has been in existence. The Bills have met the Seahawks four times in regular season and twice in preseason prior to 1991. All six games have been in the Kingdome...Though the Tampa Bay Buccaneers have never played a regular season game at Rich Stadium, they have played during the preseason. In a pre-season contest at Rich Stadium (9/3/77), Buffalo defeated Tampa Bay 17-6.

DID YOU KNOW?

The name Buffalo is derived from the Native American term for "beautiful river" in reference to the mighty Niagara. French explorers and settlers in the area translated the Indian expression to "beau fleuve", which later was anglicized to "Buffalo".

DID YOU KNOW?

The first kickoff ever in Rich Stadium history was returned for a TD. In a preseason game on August 17, 1973, Washington's Herb Mul-Key took John Leyboldt's opening kick two yards deep in the end zone and returned it 102 yards for a TD. Ironically, the first TD scored by a Buffalo player in a regular season game at Rich Stadium came on a kickoff return. Wallace Francis returned a Tom Dempsey kickoff 101 yards for a score on October 7, 1973 vs. Philadelphia.

BILLS' GREAT COMEBACKS

October 28, 1962, Bears Stadium

BUFFALO 45 Denver 38

Trailing 38-23 with 11:57 left to play, quarterback Warren Rabb threw touch-down bombs of 75 and 40 yards, scored a two-point conversion and boot-legged in from four yards for the winning score.

September 10, 1967, War Memorial Stadium

BUFFALO 20 New York Jets 17

Twenty unanswered Buffalo points in the fourth quarter ended in climatic fashion as kicker Mike Mercer, in his regular season debut for Buffalo, booted a 43-yard field goal with four seconds on the clock.

September 16, 1974, Rich Stadium

BUFFALO 21 Oakland 20

Both teams combined for three touchdowns in the final two minutes of this Monday night game, capped by Joe Ferguson's 13-yard pass to wide receiver Ahmad Rashad with 26 seconds left.

November 22, 1981, Rich Stadium

BUFFALO 20 New England 17

With only 35 seconds remaining, the Bills drove 73 yards in two plays and snatched victory when quarterback Joe Ferguson's 36-yard "Big Ben" pass deflected into the arms of running back Roland Hooks.

October 25, 1987, Joe Robbie Stadium

BUFFALO 34 Miami 31

The Bills fell behind 21-0 but battled back in the second half to set the stage for kicker Scott Norwood's 27-yard field goal in overtime.

September 10, 1989, Joe Robbie Stadium

BUFFALO 27 Miami 24

Down by four points with no time on the clock, quarterback Jim Kelly dove two yards into the end zone to finish off a miraculous two touchdown rally.

October 16, 1989, Rich Stadium

BUFFALO 23 LA Rams 20

Quarterback Frank Reich capped off his second TD drive of the fourth quarter when he found wide receiver Andre Reed for an eight yard completion with only 16 seconds remaining in this Monday night contest.

September 30, 1990, Rich Stadium

BUFFALO 29 Denver 28

The Buffalo Bills scored 21-points in a span of 1:17 seconds early in the fourth quarter en route to victory. The first of the three TDs came via LB Cornelius Bennett's 80-yard return after CB Nate Odomes' blocked David Treadwell's field goal attempt.

December 8, 1991, Los Angeles Coliseum

BUFFALO 30 LA Raiders 27 (OT)

The Bills trailed, 27-14, with under 11 minutes remaining, but scored 13 points to tie the game with a Kelly-to-Lofton 27-yard TD pass with a minute left. Norwood shook off 3 missed FGs and 1 PAT to nail the winning 42-yard FG in OT.

1963AFL EASTERN DIVISION PLAYOFF*Boston Patriots 26, BILLS 8

December 28, 1963 - War Memorial Stadium - (33,044)

Babe Parilli passed for 292 yards and a pair of TDs and Gino Cappelletti kicked 4 FGs to lead the Boston Patriots over Buffalo 26-8. The Boston defense limited the Bills to just 7 yards rushing and intercepted 4 Bills' passes to ruin Buffalo's 1st postseason playoff appearance. Buffalo had just 38 yards total offense in the 1st half as the Patriots broke to a 16-0 lead. The Bills' only scoring threat was set up by a 62-yard KO return by Elbert Dubenion, but Buffalo couldn't move and a 39-yard FG attempt fell short. In the 2nd half, Buffalo scored 1st on a 93-yard pass play from Daryle Lamonica to Dubenion late in the 3rd quarter, but Boston answered with a 68-yard TD capped by a Parilli pass to Larry Garron that put the game out of reach.

AFL CHAMPIONSHIP

BILLS 20, San Diego Chargers 7

December 26, 1964 - War Memorial Stadium - (40,242)

Buffalo made its first appearance in an AFL Championship Game a successful one with a 20-7 victory over San Diego. The Chargers scored first and made it look easy, driving 80 yards in just 4 plays, but the momentum quickly changed hands. On the Chargers' 2nd possession, the Bills' Mike Stratton crashed into San Diego RB Keith Lincoln, putting the Chargers starter out of the game, and a sense of excitement rippled through the Buffalo stands. The rest of the game belonged to the Bills. Cookie Gilchrist's 122 rushing yards complimented the varied Bills' passing attack as Buffalo scored 20 unanswered points. A pair of Pete Gogolak FGs and a 4-yard run by Wray Carlton gave Buffalo a 13-7 halftime lead and Jack Kemp's 47-yard pass to Glenn Bass set up a Kemp sneak for a TD in the 3rd quarter that finished the scoring.

GAME NOTES

- Bills' LB Mike Stratton had a standout performance recording an INT and "The Hit Heard Around the World." With 8:19 left in the first quarter, Stratton nailed San Diego RB Keith Lincoln with a hit which put Lincoln out of the game. "The Hit," which broke one of Lincoln's ribs, was considered the turning point in the game.
- Two ex-Chargers came back to haunt their former team. QB Jack Kemp, picked up off waivers from San Diego for $100 dollars, fueled the Bills offense past the Chargers. The other Charger cast off, P Paul Maguire, launched a 64-yard punt and killed the Chargers last attempt for a comeback. Maguire's punt was the longest in Bills playoff history.

AFL CHAMPIONSHIP

BILLS 23, San Diego Chargers 0
 December 26, 1965 – Balboa Stadium – (30,361)

For the second straight year, the Bills defeated the Chargers to win the AFL Championship. In 8 quarters of championship play, the Chargers managed just 7 points against Buffalo. After an uneventful 1st quarter, Jack Kemp, voted the game's MVP, hit Ernie Warlick with an 18-yard TD pass to open the scoring and 3 minutes later the Bills' Butch Byrd returned a punt 74 yards for a score to put Buffalo on top 14-0. The rest of the game belonged to the Bill's defense as they continually thwarted San Diego's explosive offense. Three Pete Gogolak FGs in the 2nd half added icing to the Bills' championship cake.

AFL CHAMPIONSHIP

Kansas City Chiefs 31, BILLS 7
 January 1, 1967 – War Memorial Stadium – (42,080)

Led by the impeccable quarterbacking of Len Dawson, the Kansas City Chiefs earned the right to play the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl I by defeating Buffalo, 31-7. The Chiefs' defense forced 4 Buffalo turnovers and limited the Bills to 9 first downs and 40 yards rushing. The Chiefs grabbed an early 7-0 lead, after Buffalo fumbled the opening KO. The Bills countered with a 69-yard bomb from Jack Kemp to Elbert Dubenion to tie the game. Dawson hit Otis Taylor with a 29-yard TD pass in the 2nd quarter to put the Chiefs on top, but Kemp moved Buffalo into scoring position near the end of the half. A Johnny Robinson INT and long return set up Mike Mercer's 32-yard FG with 3 seconds left in the half and Kansas City had the momentum. Buffalo never penetrated the Chief's 40-yard line in the 2nd half while Kansas City added a pair of scores by Mike Garrett to turn the game into a rout.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

Pittsburgh Steelers 32, BILLS 14

December 22, 1974 - Three Rivers Stadium - (48,321)

A 4-TD explosion in the 2nd quarter propelled Pittsburgh to a 32-14 win over the Bills, spoiling Buffalo's 1st postseason appearance in 8 years. The Bills moved out to an early 7-3 lead on a 22-yard TD pass from Joe Ferguson to Paul Seymour. But Terry Bradshaw ran the Steeler offense to perfection in the 2nd quarter, completing 7 of 8 passes for 143 yards and repeatedly hurting Buffalo with scrambling gains. Rocky Bleier began the Pittsburgh scoring avalanche with a 27-yard TD reception and Franco Harris scored 3 times from inside the 5-yard line as the Steelers moved out to an insurmountable 29-7 lead. In the 2nd half, Buffalo's comeback hopes were stymied by the tough Pittsburgh defense and a stubborn ball control offense that kept the ball away from the Bills.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

San Diego Chargers 20, BILLS 14
January 3, 1981 - San Diego Stadium - (48,321)

In dramatic fashion, San Diego rallied from a 14-13 deficit as QB Dan Fouts connected with WR Ron Smith on a 50-yard scoring pass with just 2:08 remaining in the game. The reception was only the 5th of the season for Smith. Playing courageously on a badly sprained left ankle, QB Joe Ferguson tried to direct a last ditch bid by the Bills. His efforts were thwarted, however, when a pass was picked off by a San Diego defender after Buffalo had reached midfield. Meeting for the 2nd time at San Diego within a 3-month span, the teams battled on even terms until the Chargers got a late 1st quarter FG. Then the Bills took command with two 2nd period scores. The 1st came on a 1-yard burst up the middle by Roosevelt Leaks. With only 16 seconds remaining in the half, Ferguson connected with WR Frank Lewis on a 9-yard scoring play, upping the Bills' margin to 14-3. San Diego countered with a 3rd quarter TD and 4th period FG before the late heroics by Fouts and Smith.

AFL WILD CARD PLAYOFF

BILLS 31, New York Jets 27

December 27, 1981 - Shea Stadium - (57,050)

In a Wild Card game that lived up to its name, the Buffalo Bills stormed to a 24-0 lead but needed a last-second INT by Bill Simpson to preserve their 1st postseason victory since 1965. Charles Rome got the visitors off and winning by picking up Bruce Harper's fumble on the opening KO and returned it 26 yards for a TD. The play took 16 seconds and was the 2nd fastest score in NFL playoff history. TD passes of 50 and 26 yards to Frank Lewis, were sandwiched around a 29-yard Nick Mick-Mayer FG to put the Bills, up by 24-0. The Jets hung up 10 points before halftime and trailed 24-13 after Pat Leahy's 19-yard FG in the 3rd quarter. Joe Cribbs, staked the Bills to a 31-13 lead with his 45-yard scoring run 5 minutes deep into the final period. The Jets, however, refused to die. Richard Todd moved them 80 yards in 8 plays, hitting Bobby Jones with a 30-yard TD toss. After Buffalo failed to move on their next possession, Todd got the Jets within four with the aid of an interference call against Mario Clark that wiped out an apparent INT, in a 58-yard march that ended on a 1-yard plunge by Kevin Long. Buffalo could not generate a 1st down and turned the ball back to New York at the Jets' 20 with 2:36 remaining. Todd passed the Jets downfield, reaching the Buffalo 11 with just 10 seconds to play. Simpson stepped in front of his 2nd-and-10 try for Derrick Gaffney in the end zone to intercept at the Buffalo one to seal the Jets' doom.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

Cincinnati Bengals 28, BILLS 21

January 3, 1982 - Riverfront Stadium - (55,420)

Cincinnati jumped out to a 14-0 1st quarter lead, after cashing in on a long punt return and an INT, and defeated Buffalo 28-21, to secure the 1st postseason victory in the history of the Bengals' franchise. The Bengals' Mike Fuller returned a Greg Cater punt 27 yards to start Cincinnati's 1st possession at the Buffalo 42. Charles Alexander capped a 7-play drive with his 4-yard scoring run. After Ken Riley intercepted a Joe Ferguson pass, the Bengals marched 48 yards in 8 plays and took a 14-0 advantage on Pete Johnson's 1-yard run. Buffalo breathed new life before halftime, as Ferguson hit Jerry Butler with a 54-yard pass to draw within 14-7 on Joe Cribbs' 1-yard run. Early in the 3rd quarter, the Bills evened the issue on a 44-yard scoring run by Cribbs, a play that would later prove costly as the Buffalo rushing leader injured a knee and played only one more down before retiring for the afternoon. The teams traded TDs, Cincinnati scoring on a 20-yard run by Alexander and Buffalo on a 21-yard pass from Ferguson to Butler, to make it 21-21 after 1 play of the 4th quarter. Bengal QB Ken Anderson put Cincinnati back in the driver's seat, 28-21, on a 16-yard scoring pass to Cris Collinsworth. Buffalo's last grasp reached the Bengal 20 late in the final stanza but a controversial delay-of-game penalty wiped out an apparent 3rd down conversion pass to Lou Piccone and Ferguson overthrew Roland Hooks in the end zone on 4th down.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BILLS 17, Houston Oilers 10
 January 1, 1989 – Rich Stadium – (79,532)

Spurred on by 79,532 noisy fans, the Bills blocked a Houston punt and field goal, and forced a fumble on another punt late in the series, to advance to the AFC Championship game. Following Leonard Smith's block of a Greg Montgomery punt, the Bills scored on Robb Riddick's one-yard TD run. The Oilers answered with a 35-yard Tony Zendejas FG, following an 11-play, 71-yard drive to make the score 7-3 at the intermission. The Bills' defense stymied Houston in the 3rd quarter as Oilers' QB Warren Moon was unable to complete a pass in the period. Thurman Thomas, who earlier had a career-best 40-yard run, scored from 11 yards out following a 59-yard drive to give the Bills a 14-3 lead after 3 quarters. Scott Norwood nailed a 27-yard FG after Mark Kelso picked off a Moon pass and returned it 28 yards to put the Bills at the Houston 18. Mike Rozier capped an 80-yard Houston drive with a 1-yard scoring plunge with 5:12 remaining in the game. The Oilers forced Buffalo to punt with just under two minutes remaining, but Steve Tasker stripped the ball away from Curtis Duncan and Ray Bentley recovered at the Houston 18 allowing Buffalo to run out the clock and win the game.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

Cincinnati Bengals 21, BILLS 10
 January 8, 1989 – Riverfront Stadium – (59,747)

The Bills' season ended in Riverfront Stadium as Cincinnati dominated the Bills, 21-10, before a boisterous crowd. The Bills offense sputtered throughout the game, spent most of the second half pinned against its own goal line and failed to convert on any 3rd down opportunities in the game. Cincinnati scored first on a 1-yard TD run by Ickey Woods, following an Eric Thomas INT of a Jim Kelly pass. Buffalo answered quickly, as Kelly connected on all 4 of his passes in the following drive, finishing with a 9-yard scoring strike to Andre Reed and tying the game at 7-7. The Bills forced Cincinnati to punt and drove to the Bengals' 26-yard line, but Scott Norwood's 43-yard FG attempt sailed wide left. The Bengals took advantage of the break and scored on a Boomer Esiason 10-yard TD pass to James Brooks. The Bills pulled to within 4 at the half as Norwood connected on a 39-yard FG, following a 25 yard INT return by Mark

Kelso. The second half belonged to Cincinnati as it held Buffalo to 2 first downs and forced the Bills to start all 5 of its drives inside the 23-yard line. The Bengals took advantage of a personal foul against Bills' DB Derrick Burroughs to set up Woods' second 1-yard TD. Buffalo launched one last drive, but it ended when David Fulcher picked off a 4th-down pass from Kelly in the end zone.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

Cleveland Browns 34, BILLS 30

January 6, 1990 - Cleveland Stadium - (77,706)

LB Clay Matthews intercepted a QB Jim Kelly 11-yard pass on the 1-yard line with 9 seconds left in the game to preserve the victory for the Browns. In dramatic style, Buffalo began a comeback bid after K Matt Bahr kicked a 47-yard FG to give Cleveland a 34-24 lead with 6:50 left in the fourth quarter. Kelly began a string of 23 consecutive pass plays and closed the gap to 4 when he hit RB Thurman Thomas for a 3-yard keep TD. Buffalo opened the scoring when WR Andre Reed split the secondary for a 72-yard TD pass in the first quarter. A 45-yard Bahr FG coupled with a 52-yard WR Webster Slaughter bomb gave Cleveland the lead at 10-7. The Bills returned the favor when WR James Lofton hauled in a Kelly pass for a 33-yard TD. TE Ron Middleton gave Cleveland the halftime lead on a 3-yard pass from QB Bernie Kosar. Slaughter scored again on a 44-yard toss from Kosar to extend the Browns' lead to 24-14 early on the third quarter. Thomas continued the seesaw battle with the first of his two TD receptions from Kelly on a 6-yard strike. But the Browns struck back quickly when KR Eric Metcalf took the ensuing kickoff 90 yards for the score. K Scott Norwood got the Bills within seven when he made a 30-yard attempt early in the final period.

- WR Andre Reed (115 yds. receiving) and RB Thurman Thomas (150 yds. receiving) became the first two Bills' players to record 100-yard receiving performances in the same playoff game.

1990

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BILLS 44, Miami Dolphins 34
 January 12, 1991 - Rich Stadium - (77,087)

Buffalo and Miami combined for a regulation-time NFL playoff record 78 points in a game dictated by inclement weather. QB Jim Kelly ran the no-huddle offense to a 13-3 first quarter lead in his first appearance since suffering a knee injury against the Giants on 12/15/90. Kelly hit WR Andre Reed on a 40-yard strike before Miami answered with a 49-yard Pete Stoyanovich FG. The next two Buffalo drives were capped off with FGs of 24 and 22 yards by K Scott Norwood. Buffalo and Miami then traded TDs in the second quarter snowfall when the Bills started the see-saw with a 5-yard TD scamper by RB Thurman Thomas. On Miami's next possession, QB Dan Marino connected on a 64-yard TD aerial to WR Mark Duper. But Kelly answered with a 13-yard TD pass to WR James Lofton. Miami then got a break when P Reggie Roby recovered a fumble at the Bills 47 and 7 plays later, Marino bootlegged in from 2 yards. In a 3rd quarter kickers' dual, Stoyanovich split the uprights from 22 yards out before Norwood drew claim to his 3rd FG of the day with a 28-yard shot. Miami drew to within a FG, 30-27, when Marino hit guard eligible Roy Foster with a 2-yard TD pass. But the Bills added 14 points to their 4th quarter lead when Thomas put the finishing touch on a 63-yard drive by strolling in from the 5. Buffalo wasted no time getting the ball back when LB Hal Garner forced a fumble on the ensuing KO return. Just 2 plays later, Reed grabbed a 23-yard Kelly pass for the Bills final tally. The Dolphins made the final score 44-34 with an 8-yard Marino-to-WR Tony Martin TD pass.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME BILLS 51, Los Angeles Raiders 3 January 20, 1991 - Rich Stadium - (80,324)

The Bills won their first AFC Championship with one of the most dominating performances ever displayed in a title game. Buffalo set the tone for the day by driving 75 yards after the opening KO and scored the initial TD when QB Jim Kelly picked up a bad shotgun snap and scrambled to find WR James Lofton for a 13-yard pass. After Raiders K Jeff Jaeger cut the lead to 7-3, the Buffalo onslaught began. RB Thurman Thomas ran for a 12-yard TD before LB Darryl Talley returned an INT 27 yards to extend the early lead to 21-3. The Bills' no-huddle offense showcased its power by scoring 20 more points in the 2nd quarter on 2 TD runs by RB Kenneth Davis and an 8-yard TD pass from Kelly to Lofton. Buffalo posted an impressive 41-3 halftime advantage, establishing an NFL postseason record for most points in a first half. Davis added his 3rd TD in the 4th quarter, tying an NFL playoff record for the most TDs in a game, while K Scott Norwood hit a 39-yard FG to provide the final margin. Thomas rushed for a Bills playoff record 138 yards as Buffalo gained a total of 502 yards compared to L.A.'s 320.

SUPERBOWL XXV

New York Giants 20, BILLS 19
January 27, 1991 - Tampa Stadium - (73,813)

The Bills and Giants made the Silver Anniversary Super Bowl a historic one as the Giants narrowly edged the Bills, 20-19, in a battle later dubbed, "A Game for the Ages." Buffalo loyalists watched their hopes of a world championship sail wide right as K Scott Norwood's 47-yard FG attempt just missed its mark with only 4 seconds remaining. The Giants opened the evening's scoring on a 28-yard FG by K Matt Bahr before Buffalo answered with a 23-yarder by Norwood. The AFC Champions took their first lead of the game, 10-3, when RB Don Smith smashed in from the one. DE Bruce Smith then extended the lead by recording a rare Super Bowl safety when he sacked Giants' QB Jeff Hostetler in the end zone. After holding the Buffalo offense 2 consecutive series, the Giants regained momentum on an 87-yard drive that ended with a 14-yard TD strike from Hostetler to WR Stephen Baker just before the half ended. After receiving the 2nd half KO, the NFC Champions utilized their ball control offense and kept the Bills defense on the field for over 9 minutes on their way to a 76-yard scoring drive that culminated with RB Ottis Anderson bullying his way into the end zone from the one. New York took a 17-12 lead, but the NFL's number one scoring machine struck back quickly behind the running of Thurman Thomas, who broke a number of tackles en route to a 31-yard TD scamper. On the next possession, Giants' K Matt Bahr split the uprights from 21 yards out with, what proved to be, the final score of the game. After the Bills defense forced the Giants to punt one last time, QB Jim Kelly and the offense started the final drive on their own 10-yard line with 2:16 left on the clock. Eight plays, 61 yards and 2:08 later, the Bills FG unit became the focus of attention for football fans around the world.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BILLS 37, Kansas City Chiefs 14
January 5, 1992 - Rich Stadium - (80,182)

Buffalo advanced to its second consecutive AFC Championship Game with a convincing, 37-14, win over the Kansas City Chiefs. Buffalo moved out to a 17-0 lead on the strength of two QB Jim Kelly-to-WR Andre Reed TD strikes and a K Scott Norwood 33-yard FG. The Bills extended their lead early in the second half when WR James Lofton hauled in a 10-yard pass from Kelly to set the score at 24-0. The Chiefs finally got on the scoreboard late in the third quarter as a LB Lonnie Marts interception set up a drive, which ended with a 3-yard TD run by RB Barry Word. Buffalo put the game out of reach in the fourth quarter with two Norwood field goals and a 5-yard TD run by RB Kenneth Davis. WR Fred Jones grabbed a 20-yard pass from QB Mark Vlasic to set the final score at 37-14. In the game, Kelly threw for 3 TDs and 3 INTs, while Mark Vlasic was intercepted 4 times in relief of an injured Steve DeBerg.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

BILLS 10, Denver Broncos 7

January 12, 1992 - Rich Stadium - (80,272)

Led by a stingy defense, Buffalo returned to its second consecutive Super Bowl with a hard fought 10-7 win over the Denver Broncos. With the Buffalo offense in a dog-fight of their own, the Buffalo defense took the game into their own hands and registered the only Buffalo TD of the game. On 2nd down, deep in Denver territory, QB John Elway backed up to attempt a screen pass, reading the play, NT Jeff Wright ceased his charge and deflected the pass into the air. LB Carlton Bailey alertly grabbed the ball and returned it 11 yards for the game's first score. Buffalo moved out to a 10-0 lead after K Scott Norwood hit a 44-yard field goal mid-way through the fourth quarter. Denver then took control of the ball and marched 85 yards in 8 plays for a score, a 3-yard QB draw by Gary Kubiak. The Denver back-up quarterback took over after Elway left the game in the third quarter with a thigh bruise. The Broncos then recovered the ensuing onside kick, but on the next play from scrimmage, CB Kirby Jackson stripped RB Steve Sewell of the ball and scooped it up to halt the Denver comeback. On the day, Denver K David Treadwell missed three FGs, a 47-yarder wide left and two attempts, 42 and 37, both which hit the right upright.

SUPER BOWL XXVI

Washington Redskins 37, BILLS 24
 January 26, 1992 - HHH Metrodome - (63,130)

Buffalo's hopes for a world championship were dashed for the second consecutive season with a 37-24 loss to the Washington Redskins. The red-hot Redskins dominated the Bills throughout the contest and built a 17-0 halftime lead. Washington then extended its lead to 24-0 on only the second play of the third quarter with a 2-yard run by Gerald Riggs. The score was set up by LB Kurt Gouveia's INT and return to the Buffalo 2-yard line. The Bills then mounted a comeback with a 21-yard field goal by K Scott Norwood and a 1-yard TD run by RB Thurman Thomas, but Washington put all of Buffalo's momentum aside by capturing the next three scores. Buffalo added two late TDs to set the final score at 37-24.

THE CORNELIUS BENNETT TRADE

The trade that brought LB Cornelius Bennett to Buffalo was one of the most complex in NFL history. With the completion of the trade in the 1989 draft, here's a look back at the trade's details.

BUFFALO:

Received—LB Cornelius Bennett from Indianapolis.

Gave Up—1st-round pick in '88, 1st- and 2nd-round picks in '89 and RB Greg Bell to Indianapolis to the Rams.

INDIANAPOLIS:

Received—RB Eric Dickerson from the Rams.

Gave Up—1st- and 2nd-round picks in '88, 2nd-round pick in '89, RB Owen Gill, the Bills' 1st-round pick in '88, Bills' 1st- and 2nd-round picks in '89 and RB Bell.

RAMS:

Received—RBs Bell, Gill and Gaston Green (with Bills' 1st-round pick in '88), WR Aaron Cox (with Indianapolis' 1st-round pick in '88), LB Fred Strickland (with Indianapolis' 2nd-round pick in '88), RB Cleveland Gary (with Bills' 1st-round pick in '89), LB Frank Stams (with Indianapolis' 2nd-round pick in '89) and DB Darryl Henley (with Bills' 2nd round pick in '89).

Gave Up—RB Eric Dickerson to Indianapolis.

BUFFALO'S MAGIC 1,000

Gaining 1,000 yards by rushing or receiving in a single season is a mark of excellence in professional football. The Buffalo Bills have been fortunate enough to have ten players in their history to accomplish this feat, including four players who have done it more than once.

O.J. Simpson (1969-77)

Currently, O.J. Simpson is the only former member of the Buffalo Bills in the Pro Football Hall of Fame...Simpson was inducted into the shrine in 1985...He played with the Bills from 1969-77 before finishing his career with San Francisco in 1978-79...His greatest moment with the Bills came in 1973 when he became the first pro runner to gain 2,000 yards in one season...Simpson finished with 2,003 yards that year and is still the Bill's all-time leading rusher with 10,183 yards.

100/100100 YARDS RUSHING AND RECEIVING

In the opening game of the 1991 season, RB Thurman Thomas became the first player in Buffalo Bills history to record 100 yards rushing and receiving in the same game. Prior to Thomas' 1991 season, only three players in Buffalo Bills' history have recorded both a 100-yard rushing game and a 100-yard receiving game in the same regular season.

O.J. Simpson did it in 1975 when he ran for 100 yards eight times and caught for over 100 yards once. Joe Cribbs and Roland Hooks each accomplished the feat in 1981 when Cribbs topped 100 yards three times and passed the 100 yard receiving barrier once while Hooks rushed and received for over 100 yards a single time.

Additionally, Bobby Burnett rushed for 100 yards in a game in 1966 and totaled over 100 yards receiving in a post-season contest that same year. Thurman Thomas duplicated this feat in 1989 with five 100-yard rushing games in the regular season and a 100-plus receiving game in post-season.

TWO 100-YARD RUSHERS

Only 10 times in Buffalo Bills' history have two players rushed for 100-yards in the same game.

BUFFALO BILLS FOUNDATION

The Buffalo Bills Foundation was established in 1986 as a non-profit corporation to support youth-oriented charitable activities and organizations in the Western New York area. Over the past five years the Foundation has distributed more than $140,000 to over 85 different charities.

Buffalo Bills' players and team personnel contribute their time and effort to help raise the funds which are distributed annually during the NFL season.

A large portion of the funds raised in the past three years has come from the Genesee Brewing Company of Rochester, New York. A longtime supporter of the Western New York community, Genesee Brewing has donated over $120,000 since the inception of the program.

The Bills Foundation distributed a total of $61,000 to local charitable organizations last year. Since its inception, many of the Foundation's efforts have been directed toward health services, educational facilities, religious charities and youth/family athletic programs.

Since 1987, grants have been given to worthy groups in all eight Western New York counties as well as national organizations which have local affiliations in the area.

Besides the work of the Bills' Foundation, the Buffalo Bills have also assisted in major fund-raising efforts for many large charities including:

American Heart Association, Arthritis Foundation, Camp Good Days and Special Times, Childrens Hospital (Buffalo), Cystic Fibrosis, Diabetes Foundation, Easter Seals, Former NY State Troopers Helping Hands Fund, Kids Escaping Drugs Telethon, Leukemia Society, Our Lady of Victory Hospital Head Trauma Unit, Research of Children's Cancer, Roswell Park Cancer Institute, Sickle Cell Anemia, Strong Children's Medical Center (Rochester), United Way, Variety Club Telethon and the YMCA.

1990 — 1/6 Buffalo narrowly missed playoff advancement in AFC Divisional loss at Cleveland, 34-30. 12/23 Bills claimed their third consecutive AFC Eastern Division title by handing Miami a 24-14 defeat in front of a Rich Stadium record crowd of 80,235.

1991 — 1/12 Miami returned to Buffalo and again was defeated, 44-34, in the AFC Divisional Playoff game as the two teams combined for a regulation time NFL playoff record for points scored. 1/20 Bills won their first-ever AFC Championship by dominating the Los Angeles Raiders, 51-3, in front of a Rich Stadium crowd of 80,324. 1/27 Bills lost to the New York Giants, 20-19, in the Silver Anniversary Super Bowl XXV at Tampa Stadium as a Scott Norwood field goal sailed wide right with eight seconds remaining in the battle later dubbed, "A Game for the Ages." 9/1 Bills break a 28-year old team record for offensive yards in a game with a 582-yard outing vs. the Dolphins as Buffalo's no-huddle offense opens the '91 season that would see 10 new team records. RB Thurman Thomas becomes the first Bills back to record 100 yards rushing and receiving in a single game on his way to becoming the NFL's MVP. 9/29 Largest in-stadium crowd at Rich Stadium (80,366) watches the Bills handle Chicago, 35-20. 12/1 Buffalo captures its 4th consecutive AFC East crown with a 24-13 victory over the Jets. 12/22 Bills fans establish a new single season in-stadium NFL record of 635,889, breaking their own mark they set in 1988.

1992 — 1/5 Bills defeat Kansas City, 37-14, in 4th playoff contest at Rich Stadium in past 4 seasons. 1/12 Buffalo holds back Denver, 10-7, to capture its 2nd consecutive AFC title. 1/26 Buffalo's quest for a world championship is dashed as the Washington Redskins defeat the Bills, 37-24, in Super Bowl XXVI before 63,130 fans at HHH Metrodome, Minneapolis.

BUFFALO BILLS RADIO NETWORK

For the third consecutive season, all Bills games will be carried by WGR (550 AM) and its network of 23 stations. Veteran broadcaster Van Miller will handle the play-by-play duties with assistance from Greg Brown and Marc Stout, who will handle pre and post game shows. Doug Wolf will once again serve as the station's producer and engineer.

Miller will be in his 26th season as the team's play-by-play announcer. The Dunkirk native is also the Sports Director at WIVB-TV (Ch. 4) in Buffalo. Miller broadcast the Bills' first game in 1960 and called the action until 1971. He returned to the broadcast booth after an eight year hiatus and has been the "voice of the Bills" from 1979 to the present. In addition to working with the Bills, Miller was also the voice of the NBA Buffalo Braves, the Buffalo Stallions of the MISL and he also did a stint as the play-by-play man for Niagara University basketball.

Rejoining Miller for his second season is analyst Greg Brown, who moved from the Bills' pre and post game coverage to the color commentator's chair. In addition to his post with the Bills, Brown serves as the color analyst for Buffalo Bisons baseball (AAA). Prior to joining WGR, Brown did an extensive stay with the Pittsburgh Pirates. While with the Bucs, he served as promotions director, radio and TV coordinator, and the public address announcer (1987-88).

Twenty-four stations (as of June 1) will air Buffalo Bills games beginning with the preseason opener against the Minnesota Vikings.
